ASHRAM

This film could be the most controversial and revealing film you will see this year. Filmed at the Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh's ashram (religious community) in Poona India in 1979, this film documents life at the ashram, including interviews and candid footage of many varieties of therapy employed, ranging from Tai Chi to the "encounter group" in which there are no restrictions on sex or violence. Rajneesh's followers are now starting a new community near Antelope, Oregon. This documentary will allow you to draw your own conclusions about the man and his philosophy.
