...et al CEP offers courses

Courses exploring Canadian film making, parenting and the scientific basis of social issues are among the hundreds of winter term offerings of the Community Education Program at the University.

In addition to these classes, CEP students choose from a wide range of regular and special University classes offered by most departments, including business, economics, political science and history.

Preregistration for CEP courses can be completed in person or by telephone from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, Dec. 8-11, and 8 a.m. to noon Saturday, Dec. 12, at the University Continuation Center's new location in Room 333, Oregon Hall. Free visitor parking is available in a lot opposite Oregon Hall at 13th Avenue and Agate Street.

To register by telephone, call 686-5614.
