

Women breeze by Cal-Irvine, 89-57

BERKELEY, Cal. - Alison Lang and Bev Smith combined for 41 points and 19 rebounds to pace the University of Oregon to an easy 89-57 win over Cal-Irvine in the first round of the Cal Women's Basketball Invitational at Berkeley Thursday afternoon.

The Ducks blasted away early in the game, charging to a 12-2 lead and heading to the lockerroom at the half with a 43-17 margin.

"There wasn't ever any question as to who was going to win," said UO coach Elwin Heiny, "but the team came out and gave a good effort. We had a big lead early; they only made five field goals in the first half.

The Irvine game was Oregon's first counting contest of the season.

In the beginning there were Pikes and it was good.

Then came the PI PH's and it was better.

Next come wine and cheese and it was complete.

The creation of a perfect party Friday.
