El Salvador: The People Will Win

Shot clandestinely, this award-winning documentary traces 500 years of Salvadorean history, from Spanish conquest to the current struggle for peace and justice. "It is a film of imagery... We are shown the people's view of their country, their oppression, and their struggle. And at the end we are given something to take away with us. Their hope." John Conner.

EMU CULTURAL FORUM presents

RICHARD BARNET

RICHARD BARNET'S BOOKS Such as Global Reach and The Lean Years are regularly excerpted in the New Yorker. You may learn more from one talk by Barnett than in four years of classes. Why? The man addresses the key moral issues of our day - the origin and prevention of war, the conflict between concentrated economic power and democracy, the aggravation of world hunger as multinational agribusiness changes eating and farming patterns around the globe, etc.
