SEMINARS
"You Can't Beat the Enemy While Raising His Flag" is the topic of a presentation today at 7:30 p.m. in Room 214, EMU. The seminar will be on proletarian internationalism and the importance of a radical rupture with any form of patriotism in preparing for revolution in countries like the United States. The event is sponsored by Friends of the RCYB.

SPEAKERS
"Promotion and Topicality of Nez Perce Objects" is the topic of a speech by Noel Rude, graduate fellow in linguistics, today at 3:30 p.m. in Room 202, Chapman Hall.

"Dissident Speakers in the Twentieth Century" will be the topic of a lecture by Marc Abrams, University journalism professor, today at 12:30 p.m. in Room 109, EMU. Sponsored by the University Democrats. Everyone is welcome.

CLASSES
The Mock U.S. Senate Steering Committee class needs 10-12 students interested in coordinating activities of Senate committees, reporters, lobbyists, and executive branch representatives. The class will be held MWF at 3:30 p.m., is worth 3 credits, requires a 2 term commitment, and requires instructor's permission to enroll. Students are being sought from fields of: all business areas, CSPA, economics, history, international studies, journalism, military science, political science, psychology, rhetoric and communication, and sociology. These areas, however, are not exclusive. If you are interested in being a part of the class please make arrangements to meet with Richard Mathisen or Tim Mitchell at the Political Science Student Union, Room 823, PLC, ext. 4890 or at our home phone numbers, ext. 6021 and 343-0556, respectively.

FILMS
"El Salvador: The People Will Win" will be shown today at 7 and 9 p.m. at 1236 Kincaid St. in the Wesley Center. The new Salvadoran film will be shown for the first time in Eugene. The showing is co-sponsored by Clergy and Laity Concerned and the Eugene Council for Human Rights in Latin America.

"The American Eagle" will be presented today at 8 p.m. in the EMU Forum Room. Alaskan ornithologist Steve Smith spent 11 weeks filming nesting sequences in the ChiKat Valley. Only two copies of the piece are available in the United States. The film is sponsored by the Survival Center free of charge.

MISCELLANEOUS

Santa Claus will be appearing at the Christmas Crafts Faire outside of Room 167, EMU, today from 10:30 a.m. to noon. There will be refreshments and Christmas tree decorating. Children are invited to join the fun. Call the Craft Center at 686-4361 for more information.

You are invited to join the community in prayer and celebration of a Spanish Mass honoring the feast of our Lady of Guadalupe - Patroness of the Americas, at the Newman Center, 1850 Emerald St., Friday at 7:30 p.m. A potluck dinner will immediately follow the Mass. Bring something to share and wear something traditional. For more information call 343-7182 or 683-1037. Everyone is welcome.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures, seminars, exhibits, scholarships, or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run once and they are subject to space limitations. They must be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character format. Include all pertinent information. Also, list a name and phone number in case we have questions, and the date you want the brief run. Events with donations or admission charges will not be accepted unless the organization is non-profit. All items must be turned in by noon the day before publication at the Emerald Office, Room 300, EMU. If you have a question, please feel free to contact John at 686-5511.
