"The Therapeutic Touch" — a film about paranormal healing techniques with emphasis on the methods of Dr. Delores Krieger from NYU, will be shown Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Eugene Public Library, 100 W. 13th Ave. The guest speaker will be Dr. A.P. Radelet. No admission charge.

MISCELLANEOUS

Old Oregon Christmas Fair opens Saturday at the Lane County Fairgrounds. In its 11th year, the fair is a showcase for the Northwest's finest artisans and entertainers. Shop for gifts, enjoy the music, celebrate a traditional Oregon Christmas on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The fair will continue daily (10 a.m. to 9 p.m.) through Dec. 24.

An international dance featuring Nightwing is being sponsored today from 8 p.m. to midnight at Lane Community College by the Associated Students of LCC. Tickets will be available both on campus and at the door the night of the dance for $1.50 per person. For more information call 747-4501, ext. 2332.

Students interested in working as para-professional advisors in the office of Academic Advising for winter and spring terms should meet with Margery Bray any time after 1:30 p.m. today in Room 164, Oregon Hall. These positions offer upper division credit and valuable experience in academic advising. For further information call Karon Cox or Margery Bray at 686-3211.

A special product Trade Fair is planned by Junior Achievement at the Centre Court Shopping Plaza on Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. The holiday Trade Fair will feature ten of this year's JA mini-companies operated by students from Lane County high schools. The students will be selling products they've produced since the beginning of the program year.

"Swim for the Ham," will be held Saturday beginning at 8 a.m. at the Willamalane Park District Swimming Pool, 1276 G St., Springfield. Cost is $1 per participant. Participants estimate their time for swimming 8 lengths (200 yards) of the pool using any stroke. The swimmer coming closest to their estimated time wins a holiday ham.

A pre-game social gathering for University alumni and friends is planned in San Diego when the Oregon Ducks take on the San Diego State Aztecs on Saturday. The no-host party will begin at 6 p.m. in the Captain's Galley Lounge at the San Diego Sports Arena.

The Eugene Nordic Club will offer a cross country ski trip to the Metolius River Area on Saturday. Easy to intermediate skill. Call Harold Leeson for details at 741-0699.

The University student directories will be distributed to the members of the University community beginning Monday. Departments should call the EMU Administration, ext. 3705, to reserve their copies, which may be picked up at that office, M101, EMU. Students may pick up a copy of the directory at one of three places in the EMU — in the Main Lobby, at their Main Desk, or in the ASUO Executive Office, Suite 4.
