FLU VACCINATION

Vaccinations for influenza will be given at the University Student Health Center every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m., beginning on October 21st and continuing until the end of fall term.

Students may receive the vaccine at a cost of $2.50 per injection.

Faculty and staff are charged $3.50 per injection.

Persons who have never received flu vaccine and who are under the age of 28 years need two injections of vaccine four week apart. Persons over the age of 28 need only one injection. If persons received one injection of the 1978-79, 1979-80 or 1980-81 vaccine, they would need only one injection this year.

Annual flu immunizations are especially advised for people with an increased risk of complications from lower respiratory tract infections, including (1) Persons 65 years old and older (2) Persons of any age over five months with any of the following: heart disease, compromised lung functions, chronic kidney disease, diabetes, chronic severe anemia, and conditions which compromise immune mechanisms. For more information call the Student Health Center at 686-4441.

SPEAKERS

"Cross Country, A to Z" will be the topic of a clinic by Bob Woodward, editor of a cross-country skiing magazine, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Far West Federal Building Basement, Eighth Avenue and Oak Street. Woodward's talk will be part of the Eugene Nordic Club's monthly meeting.

"Activation of Sea Urchin Gametes: The Role of Intracellular Ph" is the topic of a lecture by Dr. Carl Johnson, of the Hopkins Marine Lab, Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in Room 16, Science I.

CLASSES

The Mock U.S. Senate Steering Committee class needs 10-12 students interested in coordinating activities of Senate committees, reporters, lobbyists, and executive branch representatives. The class will be held MWF at 3:30 p.m., is worth 3 credits, requires a 2 term commitment, and requires instructor's permission to enroll. Students are being sought from the fields of: all business areas, CSPA, economics, history, international studies, journalism, military science, political science, psychology, rhetoric and communication, and sociology. These are, however, not exclusive. The class will provide excellent experience for all who participate. If you are interested in being a part of the class please make arrangements to meet with Richard Mathisen or Tim Mitchell at the Political Science Student Union, Room 623, PLC, ext. 4890 or at our home phone numbers, ext. 6021 or 343-0556, respectively.

FILMS

A benefit showing of Windwalker, a film about traditional Plains Indian life before white contact, will be shown Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Celeste Campbell Senior Center, 155 High St. Admission is $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for children. Proceeds will benefit Sweat House Lodge of Corvallis, a non-profit Native American alcohol rehabilitation program. Windwalker is sponsored by the Indian Child Welfare Program of Eugene.
