CLASSES
Classes in piano for children, teenagers and adults in the Eugene-Springfield area will be taught this winter at the University School of Music. Offered by the school's Preparatory Division, the on-campus courses will begin Monday and continue for 10 weeks through March 13. A fee is charged for the classes. The children's division has four sections: pre-piano, beginning piano, advanced beginner and intermediate. For teens and adults, beginning, intermediate and advanced piano classes will meet in the school's electronic piano lab. Students will learn to read classical, folk and popular music and to improvise, harmonize and transpose. Due to the classes' popularity, additional sections will be available this winter for adults' study and children's pre-piano study. For further information and a fee schedule, call 686-3761.

FILMS
"The Wilmar 8," a documentary film which tells of eight women bank workers who fought for their rights, will be shown as part of the Lane Community College Women's Program on Tuesday and Thursday at 11:30 a.m. and Wednesday at noon, in the Boardroom of the Administration Building. Call 747-4501, ext. 2353, for more information about this brown bag presentation.

MISCELLANEOUS
Lane County Native Americans: The Senior Outreach Program and the Natives program are sponsoring Blood Pressure Check Clinics each Wednesday evening in January from 6:30-8 p.m. These clinics will take place at the community potlucks held at the Long House, 1606 Columbia St. For more information or if you are interested in helping with the clinics please call Robin Johnson at 342-7046. There will be no charge for this service.
