

MEETINGS

University Pres. Paul Olum and Provost Richard Hill will meet today with GTF's to discuss the effects of proposed budget cuts. The meeting is scheduled for 4 p.m. in Room 167, EMU. GTF's and graduate students are encouraged to attend, and bring questions, comments and suggestions.

The College Republicans will meet today at 8 p.m. in Century Room F, EMU. Organizational and political topics will be discussed. Active political leadership positions are available. Everyone is welcome.

Women in Transition will meet weekly during the Winter term to provide women an opportunity to meet and exchange support with other returning women. Call Women in Transition at 686-4099 for more information.

The Marketing Association will hold its first meeting of the term today at 6 p.m. in Room 331, Gilbert Hall. The guest speaker will be Roger Best. All pre-business and business majors are invited to attend.

The Student University Affairs Board will meet today in Century Room A, EMU, at 3:30 p.m.

WORKSHOPS

"You and Your Grades" is the subject of a workshop today at 3:30 p.m. in the Academic Resource Area, 164 Oregon Hall. Topics will include: What does it mean to be on academic warning? How does a "D" grade affect your academic standing? Are you eligible for the Academic Distinction List? This workshop will explain the University grading system and offer individual help to students who attend.

SPEAKERS

Refugee problems in Indochina, poison gas use and chemical warfare in Laos, and the effects of the Vietnam war on the Laotian people will be the topic of a presentation Friday by Jacqui Chagnon and Roger Rumpf, who were staff members of the American Friends Service in Laos for over three years. Their talk will be held at 12:30 p.m. in the EMU Forum. Chagnon and Rumpf will also lecture on Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Emerald Baptist Church, 19th Avenue and Patterson Street. Both presentations will include slides of Laos.

MISCELLANEOUS

Mortar Board would like to announce the January Professor of the Month competition. Entries are limited to any associate, full, or visiting professor currently teaching at the University. Any student may nominate their choice for the outstanding professor of January by filling out an application blank available in the Main Library, directly across from the telephone books. Entries will be accepted until Jan. 31. The winner will be announced in mid-February.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is the responsibility of the news/editorial department and is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures, seminars, exhibits, scholarships, or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run once and they are subject to space limitations. They must be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information. Also, list a name and phone number in case we have questions, and the date you want the brief run. Events with donations or admission charges will not be accepted unless the organization is non-profit. All items must be turned in by noon the day before publication at the Emerald Office, Room 300, EMU. If you have a question, contact John at 686-5511.
