Murder trial continues in Atlanta

ATLANTA

A black teen-ager testified Tuesday that Wayne Williams lured him into a car and fondled him sexually and that on another occasion he saw Williams get into a car with a youth who was later killed.

The witness, called by the prosecution in Williams' murder trial, said he saw the defendant and 14-year-old Lubie Geter get into a car in south Atlanta on Jan. 2, 1981, the day Geter disappeared.

The youth, who was not identified by the prosecution, testified that he remembered Williams as the man who had approached him in the same area in August 1980, invited him into a car and fondled his sex organ. "He felt my pocket. He wasn't really feeling my pocket. . . ." the youth said.

The man gave him $2 and drove to a secluded, wooded area, the witness said. There, the man got out of the car and "said he was going to the trunk to get something."

"When he went to the trunk, I jumped out and ran," he said.

Both Williams and his attorneys have denied that Williams is a homosexual.

Williams, a 23-year-old black free-lance photographer, is charged with murdering Nathaniel Cater, 27, and Jimmy Ray Payne, 21, two of the 28 young blacks whose deaths have been investigated by a special police task force.

Geter is one of 10 other slaying victims — nine of them on the task force list — whom prosecutors are attempting to link to Williams.

Pentagon unveils new airlift plan

WASHINGTON

The Pentagon officially unveiled Tuesday an $11 billion program aimed at sharply improving U.S. ability to rush military forces with heavy equipment to the Persian Gulf and other distant places.

Lt. Gen. Kelly Burke, an Air Force deputy chief of staff, said at a news conference the five-year program involved buying another 50 giant C-5 transport planes, the world's biggest, and 44 additional KC-10 wide-bodied tanker-cargo planes.

Burke estimated that this program, together with the enlargement and strengthening of present long range cargo planes, would double U.S. strategic airlift capability by 1989.

He also said the Air Force would gain three years by choosing to build more C-5s rather than developing and producing the advanced C-17 which the Air Force had originally proposed.

The C-17 would require research and development production and training, all of which would make that design "not as amenable for quicker production" compared to the C-5, Burke said.

Egyptian president pledges neutrality

CAIRO, Egypt

Pres. Hosni Mubarak, elected chairman of Egypt's ruling party, pledged Tuesday to follow a policy of non-alignment and encourage Arab states and Palestinians to make peace with Israel.

Mubarak's unanimous election to succeed the late Pres. Anwar Sadat as leader of the National Democratic Party was a foregone conclusion — he was the only candidate.

In his 30-minute policy speech to the party's presidium, Mubarak also said he would focus on the need for Middle East peace and economic assistance to Egypt during talks in the United States, West Germany, France, Italy and Britain starting Jan. 30.

The 53-year-old president has stressed non-alignment since he became president 3½ months ago, in contrast to Sadat, who increased Egypt's economic and political dependence on the West by sharply reducing relations with Moscow.

Egyptian officials said Monday that 66 of the 700 Soviet technicians expelled by Sadat last Sept. 15 will return. Egypt also plans to increase trade with Moscow this year by about 20 percent.

Leading Soviet ideologist dies

MOSCOW

Kremlin ideologist Mikhail Andreyevich Suslov, powerful member of the Soviet Union's ruling Politburo, has died and left a void in the aging leadership already beset by growing problems at home and abroad.

Soviet television reported Tuesday that Suslov died the previous afternoon, four days after suffering a stroke. He will be buried in Moscow's Red Square beside other famous Communists, the broadcast said.

Suslov was known in the West as a powerful but mysterious man who worked closely with Soviet Pres. Leonid Brezhnev, 75. To his countrymen, Suslov was the guiding ideologist of the Soviet Communist Party, which dominates every aspect of Soviet life.

"He was the second pillar of the regime," said one Western diplomat. "This must be a major shock for Brezhnev himself."

A knowledgeable Soviet source described Suslov as "an irreplaceable" member of the Kremlin leadership.
