

'Beat up' matmen triumph

Ducks take on BYU tonight

By Steve Spatz
Of the Emerald

The Oregon wrestling team, traveling through the Rockies like a bunch of beat-up gypsies, waited until the last moment to put away a stubborn Utah State squad Tuesday night in Logan, Utah.

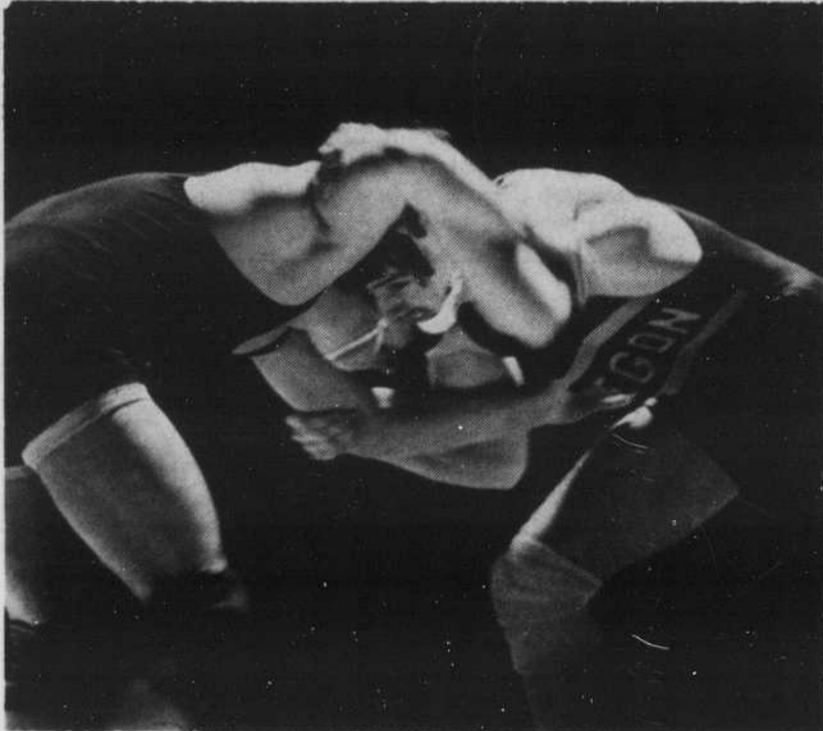

Since suffering their first loss of the season last Saturday to Arizona State, the Ducks have come back to whip Air Force Monday night 37-7 and now Utah State, 20-16 — their third match in four nights, with one more match against Brigham Young still to come on the road swing.

After Oregon's Lance Hochandel absorbed a 16-1 setback to John Schabler at 190, Utah State held a 16-14 edge going into the last match.

Duck heavyweight Dan Cook's pin over Utah State's Tom Doyle at 1:34 gave Oregon the narrow team victory, but not before some key Duck performers suffered injuries in the hard fought matches.

Rick O'Shea, Oregon's best at 158 pounds, re-sprained his shoulder in drawing with USU's Steve Ross 1-1, while at 167, Oregon's Paul Sheriff, a 1-0 loser to Dave Hagdorn, banged up his knee.

Both O'Shea and Sheriff are

Emerald Photo

Oregon's Cliff Porter (134) defeated Utah State's Dave Sherod, 10-6 in the Ducks' 20-16 win last night in Logan, Utah.

doubtful for tonight's match against Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, along with Hochandel.

"We're starting to get beat up," said Duck mentor Ron Finley. "It's really means trouble for us because we couldn't take any extra (wrestlers) on the trip."

"We just can't get a breather."

Barry Boyles (150), Miles Hancock (126), Cliff Porter (134) and Charles Nutter (177) all won by decision for the Ducks against Utah State.

Oregon's Randy Ohta lost a decision at 118, as did 143-pounder Lorenzo West.

Monday night against Air Force, the Ducks, now 12-1, breezed to wins in the first six matches, setting the stage for the lopsided victory.

"We wrestled much, much better than Saturday night (a 28-7 loss to Arizona State)," said Finley.

118-pounder Randy Ohta started things off well for Oregon with a 17-4 thumping of USAFA's Mike Miller. Hancock won at 126 by a 18-0 margin over the host's Steve Butler, and Porter followed at 134 with a 23-8 win over Doug Wells.

After a forfeit win at 142, the Ducks continued where they left off. Boyles decided Dave Stark, 21-10, at 150, and O'Shea escaped with a 4-3 victory over Greg Ehrhart at 158.

After Air Force claimed wins at 167 and 177, Hochandel reversed the tide with an 11-9 decision at the 190 weight class over Brent Johnson.

emu Cultural Forum & Keystone Family present

the greg kihn band

and special guest
tazmanian devils

friday, january 29th.
8 p.m. emu ballroom

tickets: $5.75 uo students $7.00 general public

available at emu main desk
and everybody's records

Billboard's survey for Week Ending 1/9/82
a "Rockin'roll" Greg Kihn Band.
Berserkley.
Another "overnight" star. Kihn had never been higher

—sportfolio—

PORTLAND (AP) — Veteran power forward Kermit Washington — a soft-spoken, articulate athlete who made a reputation as a bruising rebounder — said Tuesday that recurrent injuries have forced him to end his professional basketball career.

Washington, 30, played nine seasons for four teams in the National Basketball Association, averaging 9.3 points per game and grabbing a total of 4,213 rebounds.

The most notorious moment in his career came in 1977, when he seriously injured Rudy Tomjanovich in a fight during a game in Houston. The incident became the subject of a multi-million dollar lawsuit involving the Rockets and Washington's team, the Los Angeles Lakers.

"I can't even remember life before sports," Washington said. "Now this is life after sports."

Washington spent the last 2½ seasons with the Portland Trail Blazers after arriving from San Diego as partial compensation for the Clippers' acquisition of all-star center Bill Walton.

Portland Coach Jack Ramsay called Washington one of the most coveted power forwards in the game and a man who is respected by the league's coaches and players.

—et al.—

MEETINGS

The Campus American Civil Liberties Union will hold an important membership meeting today at 4:30 p.m. in Century Room D, EMU. Topics for discussion will include the future Human Life Amendment panel discussion, the IFC budget request, and present research.

The Psychology Club will meet today in Room 111M, EMU. We will discuss speakers and our upcoming pizza feed.

The Society for Individual Liberty will meet today at 3:30 p.m. in Century Room E, EMU.

The American Advertising Federation will meet today at 4:30 p.m. in Studio C, IMC. We will see 1981 CLIO's.

The Condon Society will hold its first winter term meeting today at 4:30 p.m. in Room 45, Geology Building. Planned discussion includes winter and spring field trips, the 1982 budget, the dilemma of the natural history museum, an historical look at the Condon Society, and ideas and suggestions for social events and fundraisers for the coming year. Membership is free, and refreshments will be provided.

The University Democrats will hold their business meeting today in Room 108, EMU. The meeting will be preceded by a lecture — "Elections and Campaigns" — given by Carl Hosticka of C.S.P.A. Topics for the meeting will include the weekend voter registration drive, the upcoming bake sale and a report on the planned gubernatorial panel discussion.

The College Republicans will hold an organizational and policy meeting Thursday at 7 p.m. in Century Room F, EMU.

SPEAKERS

"Metaphysical Wisdom: Auras and Thought Forms, Their Colors and Meanings" is the topic of a presentation today from 3:30-5:30 p.m. in Room 102, Gilbert Hall, by Louis Pigeon, PhD.

Oregon Daily Emerald

CLASSES

Personal Lifestyle Design is the topic of a Search class being offered Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Room 137, Gilbert Hall. Topics will include jealousy and group marriage; transmute neurosis into awareness.

MISCELLANEOUS

A Herpes discussion group led by a physician and a psychologist and sponsored by the University Counseling Center and the Student Health Service will meet from 2:30-4 p.m. Thursdays at the Student Health Center Medical library. We will review medical and psychological aspects of this problem.

The Episcopal Campus Ministry holds regular communion services every Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. in the Koionia Center Chapel, 1414 Kincaid St. Bible study begins at 5:30 p.m. immediately following the services.

Women in Transition is offering a support group for women returning to school. The group will meet Thursday at 9 a.m. in Century Room B, EMU. For more information, call Joyce or Mary at 686-4099.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is the responsibility of the news/editorial department and is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures, seminars, exhibits, scholarships, or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run once and they are subject to space limitations. They must be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information. Also, list a name and phone number in case we have questions, and the date you want the brief run. Events with donations or admission charges will not be accepted unless the organization is non-profit. All items must be turned in by noon the day before publication at the Emerald Office, Room 300, EMU. If you have a question, contact John at 686-5511.

DOONESBURY

BLOOM COUNTY

