

Dorm residents hold beauty of a contest

The residents of Cloran Hall found the proper way to celebrate the week: what could be better than holding a beauty pageant featuring the men in drag?

"It's just a way for residents to spend a Wednesday night," Nita Veldhuisen, resident assistant for Cloran and mastermind behind the project. "A study break."

The justification for such seamy idleness is "Over the Hump Night," a fortnightly festivity celebrating the coming of the better half of the week. There have been five such evenings so far this year, Veldhuisen said, with the separate dorms of the Hamilton and Bean complexes taking turns being host.

But some weeks just seem to deserve a bigger celebration. Veldhuisen didn't regard the beauty pageant as being out of the ordinary.

"Since it was a girls' dorm it sounded like a fun thing to do."
