THE EMU CULTURAL FORUM presents
THE MARRIAGE OF MARIA BRAUN
The most spectacular product of Rainer Werner Fassbinder's career to date, and probably of the entire New German Cinema as well. Mixing soap opera, sexual politics, offbeat comedy, epic romance, current history, social satire, and period piece into an amazingly coherent whole. Fassbinder uses the story of his prodigious heroine, who mobilizes herself upward while waiting for her long-lost soldier husband, as a metaphor for defeat, rise, growing pains, and ultimate fate of post-war Germany.

BODY HEAT
A sensual tale of the blinding force of naked desire. William Hurt stars as Ned Racine, a lazy, incompetent criminal lawyer whose love for another man's wife entangles him in a web of deceit and murder. Kathleen Turner is Matty Walker, the sensual seductress. Ned and Matty's torrid affair becomes a reflection of the eventual downfall of making success an obsession and consequently turns dark when the lovers conspire to do away with her husband.
