LILY TOMLIN
 in
THE INCREDIBLE SHRINKING WOMAN
 Lily Tomlin has been called "one of the funniest people alive" by Newsweek. In this film, Lily finds herself the victim of a society full of consumer products with nasty side-effects. As a result, Lily finds herself shrinking - with hilarious results! "Strangely humorous with an underlying note of scathing social satire... It is unquestionably funny and often bizarre." Variety

HEAVEN CAN WAIT
 If you lapped up REDS, here's your chance to see another side of Warren Beatty. "Heaven Can Wait" is a 1978 remake of a classic '40s comedy. Beatty plays a professional quarterback who literally dies before his time. When the heavenly records are checked and the mistake found, the scramble to find Beatty a new body and a second lease on life begins. Crack comic performances by Dyan Cannon, Charles Grodin, and Buck Henry make this must-see entertainment. Also starring the soulful-eyed Julie Christie, and James Mason.

THE SAMURAI MASTERPIECE
YOJIMBO
 The incomparable Toshiro Mifune stars as renegade samurai who is recruited to help put a stop to a battle between factions in an embattered town. Finding both sides thoroughly distasteful, Mifune develops his own special plan to create peace. Action-packed and often very funny, YOJIMBO is one of the best films of the great director Akira Kurosawa.

SUPERMAN II
 Starring Christopher Reeve, Margot Kidder, Gene Hackman
 When last we saw the man of steel, he was singlehandedly holding together the Hoover Dam, propping up a crumbling Golden Gate Bridge, and raising Lois Lane from the dead. No mean trick, and in "Superman II," the perils continue at four times the velocity when Lex Luthor is joined by three deadly villains from Krypton, sworn to avenge themselves on Superman. Action! Adventure! Suspense! Did we mention romance? That's right - Lois finally gets her man, and sighs: "Nobody does it better." It cost them $20 million and it'll only cost you $1.50 - how can you refuse?
