TO SOMEONE, LIKE YOU:

Tim Hardin was from Eugene. He wrote this song long ago. Rod Stewart sings it so well! Tim died a year or two ago, young. I feel like I lived this song. Thank you, Tim. Next time it won't be the blues.

REASON TO BELIEVE

If I listen long enough to you I'd find a way to believe it's all true Knowing that you lied
straight-faced
while I cried.
Still I look to find a reason to believe Someone like you
makes it hard to live without somebody else
Someone like you makes it easy to give
and never think about myself
If I gave you time
to change my mind, I'd find a way
just to leave the past behind Knowing that you lied
straight-faced
while I cried.
Still I look to find
a reason to believe Someone like you makes
it hard to live
without somebody else
Someone like you makes
it easy to give
and never think of myself
Someone like you
Someone like you
Someone like you
Someone like you
Happy Valentine's Day to all those who aren't celebrating anything or anyone special. Good things take time, but they'll last.
