The Oregon women's ski team Saturday won the giant slalom and slalom events at Mt. Spokane, Wash. Yvonne Gemmell paced the women with a second-place finish in the giant slalom and first in the slalom. It was Gemmell's second win of the season.

Other women to do well in the events were Nancy Lindley and Kate Ryan who finished fifth and eighth, respectively, for Oregon. The Oregon men finished third in the events.

Both the men's and women's teams go on to regionals Saturday in an attempt to qualify for nationals in alpine and cross country skiing.

The Oregon men's basketball team continues to lead the Pacific 10 Conference in scoring with a 75.4 average, and continues to have the worst defense in the league, allowing 80.7 points per game.

Ineffective performances by John Greig and Jerome Williams in last weekend's 94-51 loss to Oregon State dropped both from the top five in the respective departments of scoring and rebounding. Greig's fifth-ranked scoring average dropped from 16.3 to 15.6, while Jerome Williams, ranked third in rebounding, saw his average drop from 9.5 rebounds per game to 8.9 per game following a two-rebound game against the Beavers. Greig could only score three points against the awesome Beaver defense.

The Duck men hoopers will try to break their current six-game losing streak against the Washington schools this weekend. Saturday, the Washington Huskies entertain Oregon in Seattle, while WSU plays host Monday night in Spokane. The Cougar game will be the regional Monday Night game of the week in addition to being beamed on the ESPN network.

Bev Smith, Oregon's premier women's basketball player, will be honored following her last home game in a Duck uniform. The senior will have her number 24 jersey retired at the completion of the Oregon-Montana game, March 6 in McArthur Court.

MILL CITY, Ore. (AP) — Two basketball coaches at Santiam High School were reprimanded Tuesday for conducting a practice in which players had to remove an article of clothing each time they missed the basket.

One girl who happened to be watching the practice session complained to school authorities.

The Mill City-Gates school board voted 3-1 to reprimand Coach Morris Snider and junior varsity Coach Doug O'Neal for the incident last week.

"This sort of thing does not meet educational standards and cannot be tolerated in the future," the resolution said.

The Oregon Track and Field Clinic will be held Saturday April 3, 1982 at McArthur Court. Topics such as off-season training for distance running, relay exchanges, and shot put and javelin technique will be covered during the morning session preceding the Oregon-WSU dual track meet. Oregon men's head coach Bill Dellinger, women's coach Tom Heinonen and the Oregon staff will host the event. Registration is $5.

NEW YORK (AP) — Champion Larry Holmes said Tuesday he was certain that his scheduled March 15 World Boxing Council heavyweight title fight against Gerry Cooney would be postponed and labeled the injured challenger "Looney Cooney."

"These whackos are doing a good job of conniving and scheming," Holmes said of Cooney and his managers.

Three pointer leads Bullets over Blazers

PORTLAND (AP) — Guard Frank Johnson's three point play with 42 seconds left lifted the Washington Bullets to a 100-97 National Basketball Association victory over Portland Tuesday night.

Johnson's points rescued the Bullets, now with a 25-25 record, after Portland, struggling for most of three quarters, regained the lead at 96-95 on Kelvin Ransey's basket.

Johnson's points gave the Bullets a 98-96 lead. After Portland's Billy Ray Bates made one of two free throws, Washington sewed it up with free throws by Spencer Haywood and Don Collins.

Greg Ballard led Washington with 22 points, 14 in the first half as the Bullets nursed a 49-47 lead.

Portland took command early in the third quarter as Mychal Thompson, who had 21 points and 15 rebounds for Portland, scored back-to-back buckets to give the Blazers a 54-53 advantage.

A field goal by Rick Mahorn put the Bullets back on top, 55-54, with 8:22 left in the third period.

Washington maintained the lead until the last two minutes. Ransey, who had been held scoreless, scored his first field goal at 2:16 to pull the Blazers to within four. After Thompson hit a free throw, Ransey scored back-to-back free throws to give Portland its short-lived lead.

Jim Paxson led the Blazers, now 28-22, with 24 points.
