

Publisher to move to local area

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — A company that publishes trade magazines for pharmaceutical and cosmetics industries will move from Inglewood, Calif., to Springfield.

Edward Aster Publications will move into the former Springfield public library on April 22, Aster said.

The building became available when the library was moved to the city's new civic center.

Under an agreement with the city, Aster will lease the building for 10 years, paying $4,950 a month in rent for the first five years and $5,850 a month thereafter.

The city agreed to spend $100,000 to renovate the former library into a 30-office complex and to pay property taxes of about $13,000 a year on the building.

Aster said about 20 employees will move to Springfield and another 20 will be hired after the move.

His firm publishes the monthly magazines Cosmetic Technology, Pharmaceutical Technology and Pharmaceutical Executive. Aster said he planned to start up another pharmaceutical magazine in July.

Aster said he picked the Eugene-Springfield area because he wanted to operate from a small city with a university and convenient air transportation.
