THE LAST METRO
Catherine Deneuve, possibly the most beautiful woman in motion pictures, stars with France's popular young actor Gerard Philipe in this film that fulfills director Francois Truffaut's career-long ambition to depict life in the French theatre during the Nazi occupation during WWII. Truffaut's characters display an understated heroism of searing and barely controlled intensity.

The Cultural Forum presents
DRAGONSLAYER
Deep in the medieval British countryside lurks Vermithrax Pejorative (!), a 40-foot, fire-breathing dragon that consumes virgins (!) and terrorizes the area. A young sorcerer's apprentice is called upon to prove himself by crossing the Lake of Fire and fighting the monster to the death. Walt Disney Studios and the makers of "Alien" collaborate on this cross between "Fantasia" and St. George and the dragon.

BREAKER MORANT
If you've been wondering what all the fuss over Australian cinema is about, "Breaker Morant" is a wonderful film to cut your teeth on. The story of three Australian soldiers accused of war crimes during the Boer War, the film draws some edifying parallels with our own Vietnam war - or any war, for that matter. Says Time magazine: "This very traditional looking film is dramatically taut, full of strongly developed characters who never deteriorate into good-guy, bad-guy spokesmanship."

ALIEN
Alien is a landmark (spacemark?) film of the horror/sci-fi genre. Its characters are carefully developed, the sets are lovingly detailed, and the alien being (which metamorphoses into increasing deadliness throughout the film) is indisputably the greatest triumph in biological special effects to date.

WOODY ALLEN in
THE FRONT
Woody gives his most unusual performance as a small time "nobody" who catapults to fame when he acts as "the front" for black-listed writers who can't get their scripts accepted during the McCarthy era of the 1950s. This comedy/drama presents a side of Woody not shown in his other films - and his acting is outstanding!

The adventures of King Arthur, his Knights of the Round Table, and Queen Guinevere and Lancelot come spectacularly to life in this magnificent all-star film. T.H.
