Conference

For over half a year the ASUO has been hard at work planning and organizing the Northwest National Security Conference which will take place on campus Feb. 25-27.

At a time when the government is proposing to allocate to the Defense Dept. a record breaking peacetime budget the conference will bring together nationally known people, who are supportive as well as critical of Administration policies, some of whom have not only come and give their opinions but have to answer questions from the audience as well.

This is a unique opportunity for us. To paraphrase a WWI general, national security is too important to be left to the experts. We're the ones who supply the money and the bodies for the policies these people formulate. I feel it is obligatory we show up and listen to the conference speakers and in turn ask them the cold hard questions they so rarely receive.

I know there are hundreds of thousands of veterans across the country in VA hospitals and Vet Centers across the country who wish that people had asked similar questions of the national security experts twenty years ago.

We may never have a chance like this again. Let's not blow it.

Incompetent

I can't stand it any longer! I have to speak my peace about Jim Haney! I think he is one of the most incompetent, irresponsible coaches in the league, or in the nation for that matter. I am speaking of the incident with Barry Walker. Haney has enough trouble keeping players on the team, to start throwing them off! Barry Walker is a money ball player and had sparked the Ducks more than once this year. Most of all he is certainly entitled to voice his opinion. Haney's decision not to play Walker in his last game against OSU was a slap in the face. If I were Walker I'd slap Haney in the face! Haney, if you can't stand the heat in the kitchen, get out.

Homosexuality

The Emerald's review of "Making Love" is infuriating. Where does Matt Meyer get off imposing his beliefs on homosexuality when he should be reviewing whether the movie technically works or not? His insinuation that homosexuality is indeed a disease that we should all fear and that homosexuals are socially irresponsible is ridiculous.

Get a grip on your latent fears and in the future stick to objective reporting. We want to know if the acting, writing and direction are worthwhile, not your personal bias on the subject matter.

How much did Jerry Falwell pay you to write this, anyway?

Regrets

The Emerald regrets the misinformation conveyed in Monday's editorial concerning the IFC and intramural funding. The IFC is required to put certain funding matters before the students.

The Emerald further regrets any bad light it may have cast on the IFC.

Clues

It is too bad that your reviewer, Marian Green, didn't understand Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie," for the ORT's production is the best (of three) I've seen. The trouble is, one has to understand the play before one can judge the characterizations. Williams gives plenty of clues, the biggest right at the beginning: the play's subject is memory. And as memory softens the edges and intensifies of all things remembered, so the dream-like atmosphere of ORT's production seems just right. So does Jacquie McClure's Amanda. The Wingfield family is imprisoned in a past, Amanda's remembered past. Green wants Amanda "more hard-bitten." Well, to a southern lady of Amanda's quality, it is no virtue to be hard-bitten. Perhaps Green should stick to the soaps. Or read Faulkner.

JBL 19 • JBL took their 4301 compact professional broadcast monitor - a big favorite of radio stations - and dressed it up for home use. It's acoustically identical to the 4301 except that it comes in a hand-finished walnut veneer enclosure.

HITACHI

Cassette Deck DE 55

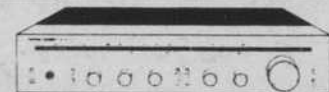

The Hitachi DE 55 cassette deck is loaded with features. It has full solenoid operation, L.E.D. metering, metal capability and of course, dolby noise reduction. The DE 55 also allows the user to automatically rewind the tape at the end of play. In addition, you can program the deck to automatically rewind the tape at the end of play and then have it replay the same side for uninterrupted listening. The DE 55 is backed by a two year parts and labor warranty. All in all, a lot of performance for a deck under $300. And during our grand opening

Harmon/Kardon 740 Receiver

$249

The HK 740 Receiver shares the same styling and performance as HK's renowned 700 series of high-end components. It's conservatively rated at 30 watts per channel and because of its toroidal power supply, common to all the HK 700 series electronics, it can easily handle peaks of twice that amount. In the past the HK 740 has been a very popular receiver at its regular selling price of $349. We're offering them at savings of $100. Upgrade your present electronics or if you're a first time buyer, you can purchase the HK 740 with one of our speakers and turntables we have on special and get the kind of sound quality that most people buy in their second or third generation component systems.

Dual 508 Turntables

$119

The Dual 508 is a new semi-automatic turntable from United Audio. Particularly outstanding is the Dual tonearm. It alone is worth the price of the turntable. It'll tract any cartridge on the market. The 508's a great turntable value at its under $200 list price.

Harmon/Kardon Cassette Deck 100M

$199

The 100M is Harmon/Kardon's least expensive cassette deck. Because of the exceptional frequency response common to all Harmon/Kardon cassette decks, even the 100M is capable of sound reproduction that is all but undistinguishable from the original. Sonically we feel it's superior to any other deck on the market under $300.
