BEAU PERE

A sexy, sophisticated comedy from the director of the Academy-Award winning Get Out Your Handkerchiefs: Bertrand Blier. "A tender, entertaining work. Blier's considerable accomplishment is to make his own directorial motives appear almost and ingenious as those of the lovers. He tells the story very gently, with as much attention to the humor of the situation as to its eroticism." Janet Maslin, New York Times.

The Cultural Forum presents THE LAST PICTURE SHOW

What's the true story of the fifties? "Grease" and "Happy Days"? Or Peter Bogdanovich's "The Last Picture Show"? Set in small, turtle-slow Anarene, Texas, the film is a sympathetic look at the stagnancy and restlessness of the period. Timothy Bottoms and Jeff Bridges are high school seniors whose glimpses of life after adolescence are disturbing and none-too-inviting. With Ben Johns, Cloris Leachman, and Ellen Burstyn as a few of the town's elders and Cybill Shepherd as Bridges' blond tease of a girlfriend.

The Cultural Forum presents BLOW OUT

"Blow Out" is a coming of age for director Brian De Palma and star John Travolta. After doing wacky Hitchcock impersonations in "Carrie" and "Dressed to Kill," De Palma gets serious in "Blow Out" - serious about his characters, serious about his implications, serious about his horror. Travolta is wonderful: given the chance to play something other than troubled-young-man, he is warm and convincing. His character, Bud, is the sound editor for a cheap porno film producer who accidentally records the murder of a presidential candidate, a murder the authorities are determined to label an accident. Nancy Allen is comically endearing as his reluctant accomplice.

SNEAK PREVIEW TONIGHT-MIDNITE DEBORAH HARRY PAT BENETAR UNION CITY

Union City is a film noir with a difference. Taking classic elements of the 40's thriller is the story of Harlan (Dennis Lipscomb, who thinks he's Bogart), bored wife Lillian (Blondie bombshell Deborah Harry who thinks she's Bacall), and Pat Benetar, and adds new wave sensibility about murder and passion. This first film by Mark Reichert has been praised for its "angular, shining, garrish look and loopy, lurid, ingenious plot."

Regular showings start Saturday through Thursday at 7:30 only.
