

Medler, Ducks gain fencing championship

Portland — The Oregon fencing team came away with almost all the honors Saturday, as the Ducks won the overall competition of the Northwest Intercollegiate Fencing Championships at Lewis and Clark College.

Out of eight schools competing in the championships, Oregon emerged as the No. 1 school, losing only the men's team foil — that by just two points.

The Ducks' Mike Medler came away with the individual championship and the team of Medler, Frank Hsieh and Fumi Ueda came in second in the men's team foil.

Katie Hickey finished first and Tara Harper second in the women's individual foil, and the women's team of Hickey, Anne Marie Tiazza, Alison Woodfield and Lindsay Organ took the women's team championship.

Helm to swim at nationals

Seattle — Oregon junior Tina Helm broke two meet and school records over the weekend at the Northwest College Women's Sports Association swimming championships on her way to qualifying for the AIAW nationals in the 100- and 200-yard backstroke.

Oregon scored 445 points and could only muster sixth-place, however, while the host school, the University of Washington, captured their ninth straight title with 1,435 points.

Helm's 59.76 time in the 100-yards backstroke her old NCWSA record of 1:00.11 she set in 1979, and her 2:05.60 in the 200-yard backstroke also broke her 1979 record of 2:06.13.

Helm also took first in the 50-yard backstroke in a time of 28.44. Other firsts include Tama Cuddeback's 1:08.16 in the 100-yard breaststroke and 2:12.39 in the 200-yard individual medley, and Susie Borchardt's 26.75 in the 50-yard butterfly.
