

Women whip men; take no prisoners

Bev Smyth's final, final finale

By Plain Newman
Not of the Emerald

The Oregon women's basketball went searching for a weak, outclassed team to pummel, in order to ensure that senior all-anything Bev Smyth would leave U of O on a winning note.

They didn't have to look very far.

The women annihilated the Oregon men, 109-85, in Bev Smyth's final final game, finally.

Words can't describe the performance of Smyth, so we're not going to try and write anything about it.

Words can describe the men's playing abilities, but they're not the kind of words we can put into this ultra-conservative, God-fearing newspaper. You know, like crappy. Oops, I said it anyway.

For the Duckmen, it was another typical performance: No one played defense, John Greeg fell to the floor crying 12 times, frosh center Rare Blassmussen couldn't jump higher than three inches off the ground, and coach Jim Zaney made the Pac-10 All-Snazy Dresser team with his dark suit and white tie.

Said Zaney, "The kids played hard, we'll win someday... this is a recording."

Athletic director Rick Flay was the emcee of another somnolent "Goodbye, Farewell, Scram, Hit the Road Bev" halftime ceremony.

"Thanks for the memories Bev," said Flay, "but don't you think 12 "Goodbye Bev" nights is enough? Alright already, get out of here. And take your cute freckles with you."

Photo by Blob Banker
John Greeg kissed the hardwood again, this time tripping over Rare Blassmussen's sneakers that have been nailed to the floor all season.

not the
—sportfolio—

All whiners, complainers and intramural sports stars who want coverage of their inertube basketball games who have a gripe about not the emerald sports coverage will meet in room 5 EMU at noon. Sour grapes will be served.

Basketball coach Jim Zaney's fan club will meet today in the basement men's room beneath Mac Court.

The U of O hacky sack club had some big competition today, but frankly we don't really care.

The Oregon baseball team is enjoying their best season ever this spring, currently undefeated after 12 non-games. The Duck diamondmen's next non-game will be against the New York Yankees today at Howe Field.

Anyone interested in being a javelin catcher at this weekend's men's track meet should be seeing a psychiatrist.

The Oregon Club Sports program is sponsoring the first annual Cort Fernald Frisbee-Squirrel Pro-Am shootout this afternoon.

Contrary to rumors heard in basketball coach Jim Zaney's office, centers Ralph Sampson and Patrick Ewing are not transferring to the University.

EUGENE (AP) — The entire University football team was jailed last night by Lane County sheriffs on charges of impersonating a major college football team. However earlier reports that their coach Rich Rooks was charged with fraud and deception in promoting his 2-win 9-loss team were false.

The year in pictures

Not the Emerald photographers captured the images and feelings of Oregon men's basketball 1981-82 on film.

December

January

February

Increase your G.P.A.!!
Impress your parents!!

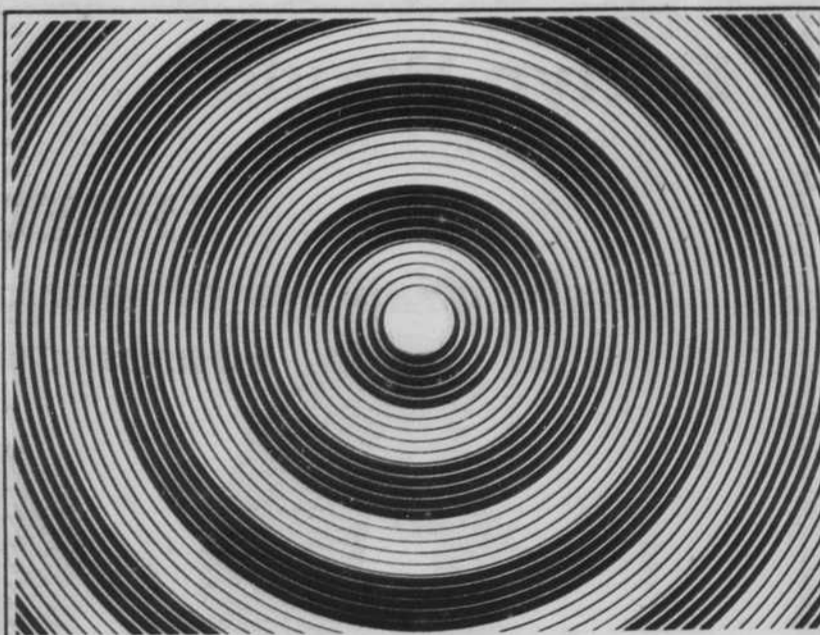

CLONE YOUR BRAIN AND LET IT DO YOUR STUDYING!

Free your own brain up for leisure, recreation and those uncontrollable substances.

Clones also available for arms, legs, buns, mothers, stop signs and dumb jokes told by your dumb Uncle Arthur.

CLONICALLY YOURS

just a hop, skip and a dump from campus.

You want to come see us

You want to come see us

You want to come see us

You want to come see us

You want to come see us

You want to come see us
You want to come see us

Spring - gene Hypnosis Clinic

DUMMYS

THIS YEAR

OREGON INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURN 1981

HOT TAX