

No candidate shortage as 81 go for 37 positions

When all was said and done at 3 p.m. Friday — the filing deadline for the upcoming ASUO elections — 81 candidates had filed for the 37 available positions. Only five people had filed for ASUO office as of last Monday.

The names of the candidates are listed in the order they will appear on the April 14-15 election ballot. That election serves as a primary election for ASUO President and Incidental Fee Committee positions and as a general election for all other offices. The runoff election for President and IFC will be held April 21-22.

ASUO President The six people in the race for the top job in student government are: Edward T. Colligan, business junior; Kevin R. Kouns, junior in sociology and women's studies; C.J. Baffe, psychology junior; Thomas H. Brannon, political science senior; Debbie Mellow, senior in management and telecommunications; and Jeffrey Houston, Russian senior.

Kouns was the only candidate to designate a vice presidential candidate, Ken Packman, a history senior.

Incidental Fee Committee The most sought-after position in student government this year is a spot on the IFC. A total of 34 people filed for the seven at-large committee positions.

psychology sophomore; Daniel Foulkes, junior in computer and information science and business; Molly Holt, law; Mary Catherine Shrauger, political science junior; Betzy Fry, journalism junior; and Adam J. Apalategui, freshman in economics and accounting.

Student University Affairs Board A total of 27 students filed for the 18 SUAB positions. The posts and candidates are: 1-Law: no candidates filed; 2-Journalism/Speech: David Bauer, telecommunications sophomore; Brent Paz, journalism freshman; Cathryn Curran, journalism sophomore; David G. Schmidt, telecommunications junior; and Randle Thompson, journalism junior; 3-Business/Economics: David Balk, senior in finance and German; Erin-Michelle Willis, senior in accounting and psychology; Brad Bosomworth, business sophomore; and Pat Widmer, sophomore; Gilbert Louis Recla, architecture junior; 11-Architecture and Allied Arts: Mike Prothe, architecture sophomore; 12-Psychology/Anthropology/Sociology: Scott Herbers, psychology junior; Mike Rivers, psychology sophomore; 13-Political Science: Ed Allen, political science senior; 14-Music/Humanities/Language/Religion: Dan Allen, senior in international studies and political science; Thomas Ford, history sophomore; 15-Music/Humanities/Language/Religion: Lori Kleinsmith, English freshman; 16-Undeclared: Scott Nelson, sophomore; Lori Lieberman, freshman; 17-Undeclared: Gay Butler, freshman; Mike Annis, freshman; 18-Chairer: no candidates filed.

EMU Board Ten candidates — the maximum number requiring no run-off election — filed for the five at-large positions on the EMU Board.

The ten candidates are: John Dulcich, junior in business and accounting; Mary Hotchkiss, English junior; Doug Bauer, junior in finance and political science; Paula A. Jamps, law; Alan Scarce, business sophomore; John Leonard, political science junior; Javed Rasool, business administration junior; Randy White, journalism junior; Steve E. Pesante, law; Scott Wong, biology junior.

OSPIRG Only five candidates filed for the six positions on the Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group board. They are: Gretchen Brevoort, undeclared junior; Lisa M. Cohn, junior in telecommunication and film studies; Steven Parker, junior in political science and history; Linda Poskros, senior in telecommunications and film studies; and William Schultz, senior in business finance.

No students filed for new at-large student position on the Oregon Daily Emerald board of directors.

Students will be able to vote for a write in candidate for any position.

Harrah's

A Summer Job That Could Lead to a Future.

Summer Break is fast approaching and it is time to start thinking about a summer job.....

Due to the outstanding response received from students in past years, Harrah's Hotel and Casino will be back on campus interviewing for summer positions.

Summer is the most fun, the most exciting time of the year at Harrah's — Reno. Recreational activities abound with golf, tennis, water skiing, sailing, hiking, or just relaxing in the High Sierra sun on a white sand beach.

Harrah's Personnel Representatives will be on campus Wednesday, April 14, 1982 interviewing for the following summer positions: Gaming, Cleaning, Housekeeping, and Food Services.

If you have a pleasant outgoing personality, and enjoy working with the public, we are interested in speaking with you. Contact the U of O Job Service Office on campus, 1511 Agate for more details and interview times.

A summer job at Harrah's is the best kind of job you can get, good conditions, great fun, and maybe a future for you.
