MARLON BRANDO
in
On The Waterfront
Winner of eight Academy Awards, this hard-hitting drama about corruption in the longshoreman's union stands as a major achievement in American film. Not only does it tackle complex social, political, and personal issues without losing any of its dramatic force, but it has become a lasting influence on American culture. Brando and Eva Marie Saint are superb, along with Karl Malden, Lee J. Cobb, Rod Steiger, Martin Balsam and Fred Gwynne.

AUDITION TAPES
for the
TWELFTH ANNUAL
WILLAMETTE VALLEY
FOLK FESTIVAL
This year the Cultural Forum is encouraging performers and groups from all folk and ethnic traditions to submit tapes. The focus of the festival is music, but is not limited to that. Poets, writers, dancers, and any other performers with folk related acts are encouraged. Tapes should be cassettes, and must be received by April 23. Please include name, number of people, and instrumentation of group, along with the address and phone number of a contact person. Send to:

CITIZEN ACTION FOR
LASTING SECURITY
and
STUDENTS FOR A NUCLEAR FREE FUTURE
present
Dr. Strangelove
Director Stanley Kubrick's irreverent spectacular about nuclear war. The film is an outrageously brilliant satire - the most original American comedy in years and at the same time a super-scientific thriller that should have audiences chomping their fingernails right down to the funny bone. Starring George C. Scott as Gen. "Buck" Turgidson and Peter Sellers
in three major roles as Mandrake, the U.S.
President, and Dr. Strangelove.

MAN
This innovative, energetic masterpiece
of pure moviemaking places director Richard Rush in the class of cinematic virtuosos. A movie within a movie, a suspenseful mystery, an offbeat romance. No formula applies to The Stunt Man, which weaves innumerable and dazzling stunts and impressive performances into a complex story about paranoia and illusion versus reality.
Peter O'Toole delivers a brilliant portrayal of a satanic movie director.
Steve Railsback stands in as a stunt man,
the previous one was killed on the set.
Frenetically paced and tautly edited for continuous thrills, cleverly written and scored. The Stunt Man is a pleasurable puzzle of cinematic delights.

Resurrection
Ellen Burstyn was nominated for an Oscar for her role in this powerful, dramatic film. She sensitively and intimately portrays a young woman who regains life after a momentarily fatal car accident, only to discover that she has the power to heal through touch.

ORCHESTRA
REHEARSAL
The Decline of the West in C. Major
Written and directed by Federico Fellini.
Orchestra Rehearsal is simply what it sounds like. This rehearsal, however, is constantly interrupted by different musicians and their union representations.
The poor German conductor is unable to hold things together. The situation becomes a metaphor for dictatorial government and the result is hilarious, even slightly musical. Orchestra Rehearsal will be shown with the short,
Mystery of the Leaping Fish, a 1916 Douglas Fairbanks film which is an utterly outrageous parody on Sherlock Holmes' addiction to cocaine.

A FREE WAY TO SAY THANKS
Do you have professor who makes you leap out bed to get to class, and never want to be late?
Who inspires you to dedicate yourself to your studies? Who make you think and want to learn? Who is simply a great teacher? Count your blessings -- and nominate this person for the Annual Ersted Distinguished Teaching Award. It's one way you can say "thanks." It only takes a moment, but it makes a great difference to the professor. It says, "keep up the good work!" Pick up nomination forms at the ASUO office right away; deadline is Friday, April 23. 682-4-22
