Gunman kills two in Jerusalem mosque

JERUSALEM

A Jewish gunman shot his way into the Mosque of Omar, one of Islam's holiest shrines, sniping at bystanders and sparking riots that turned Jerusalem's Easter Sunday into a day of bloodshed with at least two dead and dozens wounded.

After a 30-minute shooting spree on the hallowed Temple Mount, the bearded assailant was captured by the chief of Jerusalem police who described the man as being of American extraction. Police said the man was Jewish.

State-run Israel Radio identified him as an American immigrant, 38-year-old Alan Harry Goodman. The police would not confirm that information, but said the assailant apparently was an army reservist, dressed in military uniform and fired an M-16 automatic rifle.

The attack occurred within a few hundred yards of thousands of Christian pilgrims celebrating Easter, and Jewish worshippers crowded at the Wailing Wall, Judaism's holiest shrine, for Passover.

The assault on a holy site revered by Moslems and Jews alike shocked the nation and sparked the bloodiest Moslem riots in years.

National Police Chief Aryeh Ivtsan said the man acted alone, but Interior Minister Yosef Burg ordered an urgent investigation into whether he had accomplices, Israel Radio said.

Police said two Arabs were killed by the attacker and nine people, including two Israeli policemen, were wounded either by the assailant or in the rioting that broke out amid the shooting.

Firm overcharges feds $5.5 million

DENVER

Federal auditors say a company hired to manage an oil reserve at Teapot Dome billed the government for $5.5 million in costs that were "ineligible for reimbursement," the Denver Post said Sunday in a copyright story.

The Post said the U.S. Defense Contract Audit Agency questioned the costs claimed by Fenix & Scisson Inc., which managed the 9,400-acre Naval Petroleum Reserve No. 3, north of Casper, Wyo., under a $102 million government contract from 1976 until last year.

The auditors were critical of Fenix & Scisson's subcontracting, equipment purchases and rentals and payroll practices at Teapot Dome, the source of a major governmental scandal almost 60 years ago.

The newspaper said it had obtained a copy of the audit agency's interim report, dated Nov. 23, 1981, which detailed its findings.

The report showed total costs claimed by Fenix & Scisson from 1976 through October 1980 were $70,383,304, while the audit agency declared $5,507,990 of that amount ineligible, the newspaper said.

The largest amount questioned by the agency — nearly $4 million — was for subcontracting. The reasons included a lack of competitive bidding, invoices submitted by subcontractors that exceeded the amounts authorized on purchase orders and invoice items not covered by purchase orders.

Fed deficit lower, claim advocates

WASHINGTON

Tax-cut advocates within the Reagan administration say Budget Director David Stockman may be suppressing figures that suggest he has overestimated the 1982 federal deficit by as much as $30 billion.

One administration official, who did not want his name used, said spending and revenue figures he has analyzed point to a deficit of only $70 billion for 1982, not the record $100.5 billion estimate Stockman issued last Friday.

The official complained that the high deficit projections by Stockman maintain the momentum in Congress for an increase in taxes and a cut in military spending in 1983 — two policy moves Pres. Reagan has resisted.

"Congress has been rushing toward a compromise, but if this good news got out, it would blow things out of the water and the compromise vanishes," said the official, a fervent believer in the "supply-side" theory that large tax cuts will stimulate the economic growth needed to balance the federal budget.

A Boston-based analyst for the Heritage Foundation, a conservative research group, also concluded in an independent review that the 1982 deficit might run $25 billion to $35 billion below forecasts.
