

Rape lectures begin this week

A free, four-part, weekly series on rape and other subjects begins Thursday on campus with a workshop on "Rape Awareness and Prevention."

Thursday's workshop, from 7 to 9 p.m. in 242 Gilbert Hall, will be conducted by Margo Belden, the director of the Rape Crisis Network. The Amazon Kung Fu group will demonstrate verbal assertiveness, and the program also will include a film.

"We feel it's really important because awareness makes a big difference," Belden says. "If you're aware of all the myths, you have a better chance of preventing a rape."

The next workshop, scheduled for April 29, will cover "What To Do When Rape Occurs" and will be conducted by Gail Wiemann, a former network director. A film also will be shown.

The third lecture, scheduled for May 6, will deal with incest. Former network director Lisa Miller, who now is director of the network's incest survival group, will discuss the problems facing adults, who were victims of incest as children, as well those facing recent incest victims. Local attorney Martha Evans will present the May 13 lecture on sexual harassment. The film "Workplace Hustle," narrated by Ed Asner, will be shown.

The network decided to hold the campus series after the Women's Referral and Resource Service and Campus Security contacted them, Belden says.

The four-part series will be held each Thursday evening from 7 to 9 in 242 Gilbert Hall.

BILL WOLLUM:

Today, with distinction You'll write your exam. This poem's to tell you How confident I am that your concepts will dazzle. Your analyses shine, the names and the play plots Will all fall in line. Shakespeare and Marlowe Will approve all your prosas, and the building won't crash down. At question four's close.

THERE'S A BAD RUMOR going around. Some people are putting me down. Someone's ego must of felt a threat, from a naturally intelligent Vet. Maybe they've heard "still in Saigon," and think I'm worrying about memories by gone. Well, I've never been to Vietnam, and what they think doesn't mean a damn. They start rumors to cause me strife, to brighten up their pitiful life. Study hard to get a job, because then you'll see, in forty years you'll be retired like me. Remember, I don't go around killing people with axes, I just get my share of the taxes. So rumor starting turkeys, I hope you're through. The only problem I have, is you! You're the one that's sick! A. NON-YMOUS

A FREE WAY TO SAY THANKS

Do you have a professor who makes you leap out of bed to get to class, and never want to be late? Who inspires you to dedicate yourself to your studies? Who makes you think and want to learn? Who is simply a great teacher? Count your blessings -- and nominate this person for the Annual Ersted Distinguished Teaching Award. It's one way you can say "thanks." It only takes a moment, but it makes a great difference to the professor. It says, "keep up the good work!" Pick up nomination forms at the ASJU office right away, deadline is Friday, April 22. 682-4-22
