Ducks tourney bound

Coach hopes for chance at Golden Bears

By Paul Danzer
Of the Emerald

Coming off a pair of victories last weekend, the Oregon women's softball team will face its toughest test thus far at the annual Berkeley tournament in California.

The Duck women will open the double-elimination tournament today when they clash with the University of San Francisco Dons in a 9 a.m. contest.

Sophomore Marcy Sowa, who pitched a strong game Sunday as the Ducks pounded Lewis & Clark 13-0 on the road, is scheduled to pitch the opener for the Ducks.

If Sowa, who is 1-0 on the season, and her mates can down the Dons, they will advance into the winners' bracket and play the host University of California Golden Bears today at 3:30 p.m.

Duck coach Charles Sylvester said he will go with sophomore Stephanie Heisler on the mound if the Ducks meet the tournament favorite Bears this afternoon. Heisler is 2-0 on the season after she pitched the Ducks to a 5-2 win over Western Oregon last Friday.

Heisler's first win came over the Portland State Vikings, who will also compete in the tournament's seven-team field. The University of Utah, the University of the Pacific and defending AIAW Division II national champion Sacramento State round out the tournament field.

After using Sunday's blowout in Portland to take a look at everyone on his roster, Sylvester said he is no longer experimenting with the Duck squad. This is Sylvester's first season behind the wheel for the Ducks.

"I feel very comfortable with the ballclub right now," Sylvester said. "I have a good idea of what the individual roles are now."

The Berkeley tournament is traditionally a good barometer of the Ducks' progress and of things to come for the Oregon squad. Two years ago the Ducks made a good showing, placing third en route to a winning season. Last year Oregon was dead last at Berkeley and wound up 9-19.

Should the Ducks fall to the Dons they would play early Friday morning in the loser's bracket, but Sylvester says he intends for his Ducks to battle California in the winner's bracket.

"I'm going in to win the tournament," he said. "I anticipate winning (against USF) and I want Heisler to pitch against California."

Tournament action continues through to the championship Saturday morning.

Intramural softball results for April 20: Marani Marauders 7 Tingle Tanglers 5; Masterslams 16 Bhagwan Rajneesh 3; Fimbag 10 Redman 4; SAE II 18 ATO 'B' 12; Bata II 10 Orchard St. 9; TC 14 Poi Pounders 4; PKA II 16 Starship Intercourse 4; Collier 21 Sigma Chi-Delta Gamma 18

Games originally rained out on April 15 will play today.

Intramural team tennis results: Poi Pounders 2 Tri Delts 1. The Radical Racquets and Sigma Chi II clash today.

The Oregon men's tennis team rebounded from a tough loss at the hands of the University of Portland Tuesday to post an impressive 9-0 victory over Lewis and Clark yesterday.

The Ducks, now 8-7, left little doubt about the outcome of the match with the Pioneers by sweeping the six singles matches. Among the more impressive wins were a 6-0, 6-4 victory for Todd DeNeff in No. 5 singles and a 6-0, 6-1 win for Jeff Gross at No. 6.

In doubles action, both Stewart Bartlett-Ron Elvin and DeNeff-Don Hallock took 6-1, 6-1 wins in No. 1 and 2 doubles. Wade Judy and Gross completed the sweep with a 6-1, 6-3 win.

Tuesday's match with UP was a complete reversal of the Wednesday's rout.

The Ducks, who had defeated the Pilots 6-3 when the two teams met in Eugene April 2, lost several close matches in singles play and two three-set matches in the doubles. It left Oregon and UP with a split on the season.

Oregon will see its next action Thursday when they face Washington State in a home match starting at 2:30 p.m.

ATLANTA (AP) — "Incredible" was one of the first words uttered by Atlanta Manager Joe Torre after his unbeaten, record-setting Braves reeled off their 12th consecutive National League victory.

"Considering no one else in baseball history has done it, considering baseball has been around more than 100 years, it's incredible," Torre said after his team won No. 12 Tuesday night by defeating Cincinnati 4-2 before a howling crowd of 37,268 fans at Atlanta Stadium.

The Oakland A's of the American League had set the previous modern record for consecutive victories at the start of a season in 1981 when they won 11 straight, a mark the Braves tied with a 6-5 triumph Sunday at Houston.

Only one other National League team, the 1884 New York Giants, ever won 12 games at the beginning of a season. St. Louis won 20 in a row in the old Union Association, also in 1884.

The Braves came from behind in the ninth inning Wednesday to win No. 13. Claudell Washington knocked in two runs in the bottom of the ninth to give the Braves a 4-3 triumph over the Reds.

"I guess you do wonder, when you think about it," said Atlanta reliever Gene Garber, who blanked the Reds over the final three innings Tuesday night to preserve the victory for Steve Bedrosian. "If we've done it now, why hasn't someone done it before?"
