LA CAGE
AUX FOLLES
The greatest drag comedy since SOME LIKE IT HOT, this movie has become one of the most phenomenal successes in film history. LA CAGE AUX FOLLES is the name of a transvestite nightclub run by a pair of aging homosexuals, one of whom has a son. The son, who was raised by the unorthodox couple, is eager to get married. But his fiancée's father is the chief of the Department of Morals and is not likely to approve of his new in-laws. Eager to help the young lovers, the boy's "parents" make a valiant attempt to curb their outrageous life style by trying to appear "normal" and "respectable." The results are unforgettably comic. There are scenes of such hilarity that Chaplin and the Marx Brothers come to mind. But beneath the comedy is a touching and sensitive story that proves that love knows no boundaries.

THE LAST
WAVE
Directed by Peter Weir, this film has been highly acclaimed as one of the best of the brilliant crop of recent Australian films. Richard Chamberlain stars as a lawyer who finds himself involved in a series of strange and inexplicable experiences when he defends five aborigines accused of murder. As his own world view breaks down, the lawyer finds himself face to face with the aborigine's separate reality. "Remarkable, breath-

MAN OF IRON Man of Iron is more than a great film, it's an event. For the first time, a director has been successful in making an instant record of recent history, effectively explaining the course of events in Poland over the last year. One of the satisfying fusions of fiction with documentary (we see Lech Walesa in newsreel footage and as an actor), it is an accurate depiction of the turbulent co-existence of labor, the Catholic Church and Communism.
