From Associated Press reports

Chinese jetliner crashes; 112 die

PEKING

A Chinese jetliner reported carrying foreign tourists crashed near the scenic southern city of Guilin, and China's official news agency Xinhua said Tuesday that all 112 people aboard were killed.

Xinhua said the British-made Trident jet crashed Monday but gave no reason for the delayed report and did not mention whether any foreigners were aboard. But unconfirmed reports from Hong Kong said two Americans, 50 Hong Kong Chinese and several Japanese tourists were on the plane.

China's government rarely discloses news about disasters and there was no immediate way to obtain details of the crash until authorities released them.

Xinhua said flight 3303 of China's CAAC airline was carrying 104 passengers and eight crew when it departed Canton's Baiyun (White Cloud) Airport for Guilin but radio contact suddenly was lost 35 minutes later. The plane crashed 28 miles from Guilin, Xinhua said.

Guilin is an attractive city on the Li River in the Guangxi Autonomous Region about 250 miles northwest of Canton. It is a favorite tourist attraction because of its picturesque craggy mountains.

Official confirmation of the crash came hours after a Hong Kong television station reported the jet had not been heard from for more than a day and may have crashed.

A spokesman for the Royal Hong Kong Observatory in the British colony 90 miles south of Canton confirmed that weather over the Canton-Guilin area had been poor since Sunday.

Soldier convicted of slaying three blacks

BUFFALO, N.Y.

Joseph Christopher, a 26-year-old white Army private, was convicted Tuesday of slaying three blacks in Buffalo with a sawed-off .22-caliber rifle in a two-day rampage in September 1980.

Christopher, returned to his home town from Fort Benning, Ga., to stand trial, showed no emotion as Justice Frederick Marshall of the State Supreme Court read the verdict in the non-jury trial.

The slayings had terrorized the black community in this industrial city on Lake Erie. Prosecutors portrayed Christopher as a man who hated blacks and killed his victims simply because of their race.

Christopher, convicted of three counts of second-degree murder, could receive 25 years to life on each count. Sentencing was set for May 24. The charge of first-degree murder in New York is reserved for the killing of a policeman or other peace officer.

The trial followed two sanity hearings, at the first of which Christopher was ruled mentally incompetent. After two months of psychiatric care, another hearing was held and he was declared competent to stand trial.

Christopher also has been indicted in Manhattan on charges of killing a dark-skinned Hispanic man with a knife on Dec. 22, 1980, and attacking a black man with a knife in Manhattan that same day.

Over the objections of his lawyers, Christopher waived his right to a trial by jury and placed his fate in the hands of a judge.
