

Photo by Brent Waith

Vietnam veteran Ron Phillips speaks at an EMU courtyard rally Friday, commemorating the United States' withdrawal from the Vietnam War.

Hundreds rally against draft

About 400 people rallied in the EMU courtyard Friday afternoon, commemorating the seventh anniversary of the United States' withdrawal from Vietnam — and calling for "no more draft."

"Why is there no uproar?" Vietnam veteran Ron Phillips asked the crowd. "Why aren't there voices asking 'Why?' Why aren't there people saying, 'No more?'"

Those who started the Vietnam War are the ones trying to forget it, said Phillips, his voice breaking several times. "Now they want to do it all again."

"Some people say we have no memory of Vietnam," said Christina Cowger of the Coalition Opposing Registration and the Draft. "But that's not true. I think this rally today shows that people do remember, and they don't want it to happen again."

Draft counseling is becoming more important as the government begins to prosecute unregistered men, she said. Between 600,000 and 700,000 eligible men have not signed up, Cowger estimates. But the fear of prosecution may be greater than the actual threat, she added.

"Only a handful of people will be prosecuted. And they'll be used only as examples," Cowger said.

The White House is a threat to peace, said Marion Malcolm of Clergy and Laity Concerned.

"I only hope that the spirit that led us into the Indochina wars will not spread to El Salvador, the Mideast and Europe," Malcolm said.

Pres. Ronald Reagan has a "good guy, bad guy Hollywood mentality," she added. "It is dangerous, and it is no joke."

The rally — sponsored by CORD and OSPIRG — opened with "Where Have All the Flowers Gone" and "We Shall Overcome," songs made popular during protests in the late 1960s.

Those interested in draft counseling can call CORD at 485-4611.

Faculty nominated for award

About 50 faculty members have been nominated for the annual Ersted Award for Distinguished Teaching.

The award, named for the late A. J. Ersted, is designated for "teachers who demonstrate exceptional ability to induce students to reason rather than memorize." Two awards, each accompanied by a gift of $1,000, will be given this year.

A six-member committee, consisting of students Rich Wilkins and Jeffrey Nichols and faculty Wesley Becker, Barbara Clark Mossberg, Becky Sisley and Sanford Tepfer will select the winners based on nominations received from students, faculty, staff and alumni. Nominations were closed on April 23.

Former recipients of the award are not eligible for consideration in subsequent years. Thirty-two teachers have won previous awards.

Winners of the awards will be announced on May 15, and presentation of the 1982 awards will be made at the June commencement exercises.

Holiday Inn®

INFLATION FIGHTER

DAILY LUNCHEON BUFFET
FOR ONLY $3.45

all you can eat - includes our salad bar

Monday - Friday 11:30 - 1:30

Deli Sandwiches available

Restaurant Hours: 6:30 am - 10 pm

Poolside Dining

Only At The Holiday Inn -

225 Coburg Road.

Holidome®
INDOOR FUN CENTER

Spring Semester in Sweden '83

Swedish Architecture & Urban Planning
Scandinavian Art History
Communications Arts in Sweden
Education in Scandinavia
International Politics
Sweden's Economy Past & Present
Social Welfare Policy in Sweden
Women and the Family in Sweden
Energy, Environment, and Society
Swedish Language

For further information write to ISU, or contact our representative in the U.S.: International Swedish University Programs at Lund University

Mrs. Joanna Wallin
645 Lincoln Drive
Idaho Falls, Idaho 83401
Tel (208) 523-1039

The Committee on the Arts and Humanities Presents

PROF. ROBERT ALTER

Distinguished literary critic, writer on contemporary Jewish affairs, Biblical scholar. Speaking on

"LITERARY APPROACHES TO THE BIBLE"

Monday May 3, 8 pm, 167 EMU

"HOW CONVENTION HELPS US READ:
THE EXAMPLE OF
THE ANNUNCIATION TYPE-SCENE
IN THE BIBLE"

Tuesday May 4, 2:30 pm EMU Forum Room

Admission Free. Open to the Public

Sponsored by English, Comparative Literature, Religious Studies, and the Oregon Committee for the Humanities.

New Hours!

Aunt Lucy Devine's
GOOD NATURED FOOD AND DRINK

BREAKFAST NOW BEING SERVED
7:30-10:30

BREAKFAST SPECIAL
2 eggs (any style), toast, home fries
AND COFFEE $1.50

1340 Alder 683-1795

emu Cultural Forum and Oregonians Cooperating to Protect Whales

presents an evening with

THE PAUL WINTER CONSORT

A musical quest for the common ground

WED. MAY 5, 8 P.M.
EMU BALLROOM

$5⁵⁰ U of O Students $6⁵⁰ General public

Tickets available at EMU Main Desk, Everybody's Records in Eugene and Corvallis, Bremen Town Records Valley River Center and 2nd St. Mercantile.

LET'S GO 1982 EUROPE

The Budget Guide to Europe

Let's Go has extensive advice on what to see and do in major cities and off the beaten track, numerous maps and city plans to help you find your way around, even where to get local information and help in emergencies. More places to stay and to eat, regions to visit, not-to-be-missed special events, and inexpensive ways to get around are listed and covered in greater detail than in any other budget guide. Packed with literally thousands of money-saving tips on low-cost transportation, student discounts, and inexpensive bed and board.

$7.95

Upstairs in the Book Department

UO BOOKSTORE 13th & Kincaid
Mon-Fri 7:30-5:30
Sat 10:00-3:00

Textbooks 686-3520 • General Books 686-3510 • Supplies 686-4331