Rioting continues in Polish cities

WARSAW, Poland

Rioting broke out Tuesday in the Baltic port city of Szczecin for the second time in as many days. Authorities reimposed a night curfew in Warsaw as well as other martial law measures.

It was not immediately clear in which other cities the restrictions went into effect, but the East German news agency ADN said the curfew was imposed in Warsaw, Szczecin, and Gdansk.

Disorders in Szczecin, a provincial capital about 15 miles from the East German border, were announced in Parliament by Interior Minister Gen. Cieslaw

Kiszczak in a review of Monday's clashes between police and Solidarity union supporters in Warsaw and at least 13 other cities.

Kiszczak said police detained 1,372 people during the rioting, and that at least 72 police officers were injured in street battles. The number of civilian casualties was "still unknown," he said.

Authorities reimposed curfews on Warsaw residents which begin at 9 p.m. for youths under 18 and midnight for adults, the Polish news agency PAP reported. Both end at 5 a.m. They also banned meetings of student clubs, discotheques and all entertainment, PAP said.

Chinese slash bloated bureaucracy

PEKING

China slashed its bloated bureaucracy Tuesday by reducing the number of vice premiers from 13 to two and the number of ministries and commissions from 52 to 41.

The massive government reshuffle had been predicted for weeks.

The official news agency Xinhua, which reported the cuts, said Wan Li and Yao Yilin were the only vice premiers to retain their posts in the reshuffle approved by the National People's Congress, China's parliament.

Zhao Zhiyang will remain as premier, Xinhua said.

Of the 11 men who lost their posts as vice premiers, nine were appointed to a newly created panel of state counselors. Xinhua did not describe the panel's function, but based on previous statements by Chinese leaders, it most likely would be advisory.

Most of those demoted also will retain their Cabinet posts, including Foreign Minister Huang Hua, Defense Minister Geng Biao and Chen Muhau, minister of foreign economic relations and trade.

Xinhua said the elimination of the number of vice premiers, ministries and commissions was the second stage in China's major drive to trim its bureaucracy, starting from the top government hierarchies.

On March 8, the congress decided to merge 12 ministries and commissions into six new centralized bodies in an effort to overhaul the economic system.
