ALIEN

Without a doubt one of the most powerful science fiction films ever made. Alien is guaranteed to have you on the edge of your seat. In Close Encounters, the aliens were "nice guys," but the creature who gets on board the spaceship here is Bad News. Ruthless, deadly, and able to metamorphose to new, more menacing forms, the Alien symbolizes the primordial fear of all that is beyond our control or understanding.

TELL ME A RIDDLE

This film has taken Eugene by storm, consistently playing to sold out audiences when it has played here. It's popularity is richly deserved - it's an incredibly powerful and moving film about a couple who accept life's challenge to re-kindle their faded love. "Tell Me A Riddle" is a haunting, memorable love story - Toronto Star "This honest, deeply felt film about growth and death should be seen more than once." Willamette Valley Observer

Watership Down

Based on Richard Adams' best-selling novel, this animated film beautifully brings to life the penetrating allegory of a group of determined rabbits who must fight for freedom and for life itself. The amazing animation is exquisitely done in pastel watercolors. "A film of rare beauty and intelligence, superbly realized with wit and feeling." After Dark
