

Police seek help in locating rapist

The Eugene Police Department is making a plea to the University community for help in locating a man who raped a University student in her East 12th Avenue apartment 10 days ago.

At about 1:15 a.m., Saturday, July 10, the rapist entered the victim's apartment through an unlocked window, woke the victim and raped her at knife-point, says David Poppe, detective in charge of the investigation.

The victim was treated at Sacred Heart Hospital and released.

The rapist is described in police reports as a white male of medium build, approximately 25 years old, five feet eleven inches tall, 150 pounds with a stubble of beard and medium light hair. He wore a white T-shirt and blue jeans.

"I don't think it's his first time," Poppe says. The suspect displayed signs of severe psychological problems that suggest continuous offenses. Those problems should be noticeable to the suspect's associates or relatives, Poppe says.

Any person with information should call Poppe at 687-5185 during the day, or leave a message at 687-5131 any time.

BRUBAKER
Robert Redford stars in this unflinching film about a reformist prison warden's battle against entrenched corruption in the system. Redford begins to gain the respect of prisoners and guards alike, but he is opposed by community and state officials whose illegal practices stand to be exposed. Based on a true story.
