It's the hottest gig in the country!

The Eugene Performing Arts Center proudly presents another first—a galaxy of stars in the first dazzling season of the first performing arts center in the state of Oregon—for you, the first nighters.

See performances by exciting entertainers from the world of opera, jazz, pops, ballet, country, mime and oh so many others chosen from here at home and from all over the world. Enjoy them on stage in Eugene's own world class facility.

Choose seats in the elegant 2,500 seat concert hall which features a unique basketweave ceiling, gold leaf trimmed boxes and balconies set off by forest green and polished wood seats. Or opt for chairs in the intimate, wood-enhanced, state-of-the-art 500-seat theatre.

Stroll with friends down the spectacular cantilevered staircase to the several levels of multi-gabled, glass enclosed lobby for refreshments or tickets for performances.

Lunch with the stars!

Join Anna Russell, William Windom and Renata Babak for lunch in the unique Lecture Luncheon Series. Hear about the state of the arts and the world of show business today... a minimal price for maximum entertainment! For details, call the Performing Arts Ticket Office at 687-5000.

It's your performing arts center -get involved!

Interested in belonging to an organization that will become the most important volunteer support arm of the performing arts center? Drop a card to "Friends of the Performing Arts Center," 140 W. 8th Avenue, Eugene 97401 for more information.
