Finding child care is always a problem for the student with a family. The University's department of student affairs offers a wide variety of licensed child care programs at five different centers.

The EMU Child Care Center, located in a specially designed facility on the ground floor of the student union, serves up to eight children from 15 months to two and a half years in its toddler program, 16 children from two and a half years in its preschool program, and 24 children from 1 to 6 years in its evening program.

Children may be enrolled on an hourly basis from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Monday through Friday when the University is in session. Times can be scheduled in advance or as drop-ins when space is available.

The University Child Care and Development Center offers three programs in home-like settings on the east edge of the campus. Moss House serves a maximum of 23 preschoolers from 2½ to 5 years, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, on either a half day or full day basis. Green House takes 12 toddlers from 15 months to 2½ years on the same scheduling. Alternatively, Villard House enrolls 12 toddlers between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. on an hourly basis.

Up to 30 children between the ages of five and ten can be supervised from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the CCDC after-school program at Edison School. Children from Condon School walk over to Edison with an adult.

Cost at the EMU Center is $1.50 per hour for toddlers and $1.20 for preschoolers. At Moss House the cost is $1.10 per hour; at Green House, $1.50; and at Villard House, $1.60. The after-school program is $1.10 per hour.

All the centers have attractive play yards and are amply provided with both indoor and outdoor equipment, including toys, balls, art supplies, vehicles, climbing structures and even garden plots.

They are managed by a full-time director, Mary Curtis Gramley, and 2 to 4 full-time caregivers per center, who are trained in early childhood education. To maintain an adult/child ratio of no more than 4-to-1 for toddlers and 1-to-6 for preschoolers, the centers employ University students and they welcome volunteers.

Field trips are frequent, to various parts of campus, neighborhood playgrounds and other points of interest, such as the fire station and bakery.

All of these activities contribute to the centers' goal of developing the whole child through cognitive, physical, social and emotional growth within a nurturing and stable environment.

Registration at the EMU Center occurs on the school registration days for each term, which are Sept. 23 and 24 for fall term. At the other four centers, pre-registration for the whole school year is possible. At all centers, registration can also occur throughout the term as space permits. Student families are given preference.

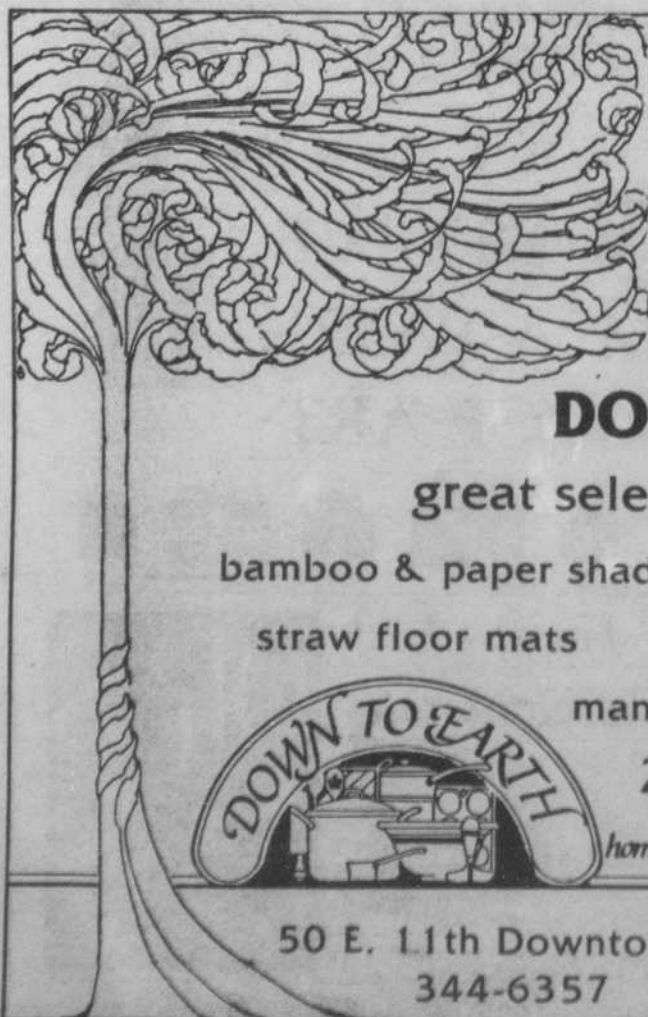

For more information about any aspect of university child care, call 686-4345 or 686-4384.
