

nine starters from '81. Safety Richardson (6-0, 190) and linebacker Maxwell (6-2, 225) have been tabbed by Street and Smith's football preview as first team All-Americans.

Starters Jim Jeffcoat (6-6, 255), Mike Langston (6-4, 250) and Walt Bowyer (6-4, 231) return in the defensive line. The secondary, led by Richardson, who tied for the conference lead in interceptions with six in '81, returns all four starters. They limited opposing passers to a 46.6 percent completion rate in '81, lowest in the Pac-10.

The offensive backfield will include senior Willie Gittens (5-10, 178), who gained 374 yards last season at tailback but underwent shoulder surgery in the spring; junior Dwaine Wright (6-0, 235), a starter two years ago, at fullback; and junior Todd Hons (6-1, 183) at quarterback.

The Sun Devil's schedule is a plus this year, as they face only two top Pac-10 teams, USC and Washington, and they get both of them at home.

Don't look for Arizona State on the tube this year, courtesy of the NCAA, but when early December rolls around, look for them to receive a bowl bid.

4
UCLA

The Bruins never seem to enjoy quite the success that their crosstown rivals, the Trojans, do. But on the other hand, one man's poverty is another man's wealth.

Most Pac-10 teams would relish the Bruin's winning tradition, which includes four bowl games in the last seven years and winning seasons 11 of the last 13.

The Bruins were especially hot late last year, destroying Rose Bowl bound Washington 31-0 and 9-2 Arizona State 34-24 before losing to USC 22-21, a loss that denied them a trip to the Rose Bowl.

They should be even hotter this season, according to head coach Terry Donahue, who says his team will go into the fall "in the best shape physically that I can remember in many years."

The Bruins ended up third in the conference in points allowed (14.9) after leading the Pac-10 through the first six weeks by giving up only 67 points. The majority of that defense returns, with seven starters back including second team All-Pac-10 linemen Karl Morgan (6-1, 251) and Irv Eatman (6-6½, 263). The pair of seniors combined for 11 quarterback sacks and 15 tackles for losses in '81.

The Bruin secondary, third in the conference last fall, returns almost intact. Senior strong safety Tom Sullivan (5-10, 189) tied for the Pac-10 lead in interceptions with six, and he also had 109 total tackles. The second-team All-Pac-10 performer will be joined at safety by the less publicized Don Rogers (6-1, 204), who led the Bruins with 133 total tackles last fall.

Lupe Sanchez (5-9½, 187), second team All-Pac-10 in '80, sat out last year with a broken arm, but he will be back at cornerback this fall.

UCLA's defense will get a lot of help on the scoreboard from the Bruin's offense, which averaged 26.2 points per game last year. Surprisingly, the Bruin's well-respected veer offense ranked higher in the conference in passing than running.

Senior Tom Ramsay (6-1, 190) threw for 1,793 yards and 16 TD's in '81. His main targets were All-Pac-10 split end Cormac Carney (6-0, 200), who snagged 29 passes for 539 yards, and flanker Jojo Townsell (5-8, 180), who caught 26 for 430 yards.

The Bruin's won't be weak at running back, not with junior tailback Kevin Nelson (5-10, 191), second team All-Pac-10 in '81. He gained 883 yards, playing in only six complete games because of a variety of injuries. Senior fullback Frank Bruno (5-11, 233) added 269 yards.

If there is a gray cloud on the Bruin's horizon, it could be the fact that Ron Mahlstedt (6-3½, 251) is the only returnee in the offensive line who started more than six games last year.

But it should be a pretty sunny fall for UCLA. The wire services have picked the Bruins as high as 17th nationally, and best of all, USC is ineligible for the Rose Bowl.

5
WSU

It was late November in Seattle, and the Cougars were knocking — no, more like pounding — on the door of the Rose Bowl. These were the same Cougars who came from a long line of non-winning tradition, a tradition that had yielded a meager four winning seasons in their last 21 campaigns, not a bowl game since a 24-0 loss to Alabama in the 1931 Rose Bowl.

The Cougars held even with the Huskies for three quarters last November before succumbing 23-10, but they went on to post-season Holiday Bowl and finished the year at 8-3-1.

Washington State was equally good on both sides of the field, finishing third in both offense and defense in the conference. Much of the offensive credit went to a pair of quarterbacks with completely different styles, junior Ricky Turner (5-10, 161) and senior Clete Casper (6-3, 192), who alternated at quarterback.

The two fit the classic stereotypes: Casper, the rangey dropback passer, who passes for 1,008 yards while splitting time with jitterbug Turner, who gained 523 yards rushing.

"I think we'll know one thing," says head coach Jim Walden of this year. "We'll know if we have one great quarterback or if we have two great quarterbacks. I think we have two."

The rest of the backfield is just as solid. Senior tailback Tim Harris (5-8, 182) gained 915 yards last year and was second team All-Pac-10, while senior fullback Robert Williams (5-10, 184) gained 445 yards and scored five touchdowns.

Continued on page 8

Our aim is to provide you with gear that is functional, good looking, and built to last.

Clothing and gear from companies like North Face, Patagonia, Sierra Designs and Woolrich means hassle-free performance and genuine value for your dollar.

Drop in and examine some of the new Fall Attractions like: Superlightweight Goretex® Jackets from Sierra West or the new trim waist-length jackets from North Face or all the new colors in Pile Clothing from Patagonia.

Innovative products, reasonable prices and excellent service.

Our 30th Year
57 W. Broadway
Eugene Downtown
Open Sun. 12:00-5:00

686-2332

MATTOX OUTDOOR OUTFITTERS

NIKE EUGENE

WELCOMES ALL NEW

AND RETURNING STUDENTS
BACK TO SCHOOL WITH AN OFFER
YOU CAN'T MISS!

BRING IN THIS AD
AND RECEIVE $5.00 Off
ANY PURCHASE OF $20.00 OR MORE OF
NIKE SHOES OR APPAREL
AT REGULAR PRICE

IN THE ATRIUM
10th and Olive

M-Th 9:30-6
Fri 9:30-7
Sat 9:30-6
Sun Closed

342-5155

NIKE
EUGENE