Mel Brooks (BLAZING SADDLES and YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN) is back with another giant comedy. From crazing singing cavemen through a lustful performance at Caesar's Palace to a musical comedy interpretation of the Spanish Inquisition, HISTORY OF THE WORLD-PART 1 proves that even in civilization's darkest moments there was something to laugh about. RAGTIME is an American kaleidoscope of the people's passions, times and crimes at the turn of the century. Each performance is a gem - Howard E. Rollins as an enraged black man involved in murder, Mary Steenburgen as the sweet, middle-class woman who surprises everyone, and Elizabeth McGovern as the beautiful chorus girl with nary a brain cell or a moral fiber. RAGTIME is rich, exciting and artfully done. Also starring James Cagney, James Olson, Pat O'Brien. In Cinemascope.
