Israel is pleased with U.S. fight against U.N. ousting

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — The Foreign Ministry said Sunday that Israel is gratified by U.S. support in opposing Israeli expulsion from the U.N. General Assembly and technical conferences of the world body.

"Israel is very appreciative and very pleased with the American approach to the problem," a ministry spokesman told The Associated Press. Any formal Israeli statements on the subject would be made by Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir, currently in the United States, he added.

Secretary of State George Shultz said Saturday that Washington would withdraw delegations and withhold payments to the General Assembly and the International Telecommunications Conference in Nairobi if those groups voted to expel Israel.

In Nairobi, the balloting on the Algerian-sponsored resolution to expel Israel from the communications conference was scheduled for today. Chief U.S. delegate Michael Gardner said he has sent copies of Shultz's statement to the heads of all delegations.

Arab nations have spearheaded the drive to oust Israel in response to the Israeli invasion of Lebanon to rout Palestinian guerrillas and the massacre of Palestinians by Christian militiamen in two Beirut refugee camps. Many Arabs blame Israel for the massacre because Israeli troops allowed the Christians to enter the camps.

Police search for street fighters as Polish workers renew protests

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Riot police with automatic weapons patrolled the steel city of Nowa Huta on Sunday to prevent further street fighting. Underground leaders of the banned Solidarity union said workers in four cities will stay at home Monday in a new protest action.

Black-bordered funeral notices appeared in Nowa Huta, a Krakow suburb where street clashes erupted three nights running last week, stating Bodgen Wlosik, 20, would be buried Wednesday — one week after being shot by police during violent protests.

Official sources in Krakow said the funeral could raise new tensions, adding a firm date probably would not be set until Monday, despite the privately printed notices. His death, officials said, remains under investigation.

Wlosik, who worked at the Lenin Steel Works in Nowa Huta, was the first person to die in street fighting since Parliament outlawed the Soviet bloc's only free labor union on Oct. 8. He was the 15th riot-related death since martial law was imposed Dec. 13.

Witnesses touring Nowa Huta on Saturday said police virtually had occupied the city, and security was so tight only small children could bring flowers to the spot where Wlosik was shot. A memorial of candles, flags and flowers there was swept away by police Friday night.

Sources with contacts in the Solidarity underground said workers in Nowa Huta, Krakow, Gdansk and Warsaw planned to stay home Monday to protest the Solidarity ban and the government's new law restricting union activities.
