SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS

A Time Management Workshop will be held Nov. 9 and 10 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Whiteaker Community School, 21 North Grand, Eugene. The fee for the workshop is $20 a day or $38 for both days.

Journalism Internship Workshop: Informational session for all students interested in internships in all journalistic fields will be held Nov. 5 from 1 to 2:30 p.m. in the Reading Room, second floor Allen. Sponsored by the Journalism Peer Advisors.

Come to this week's class of People's Law School and learn all about Labor Law and learn your rights as a union or non-union member. The class is free and requires no registration. It will be held at Patterson Community School, 1510 W. 15th from 7 to 9 p.m. For more information contact Sue at 342-6056.

Metaphysical Wisdom Seminar: Explanation of astrology, planetary calendar and the benefit or the misfortune drawn from the magnetic power of the planets, the sun and the moon. The seminar will be held today from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in 309 Gilbert. Guest speaker: Luis Pigeon, Ph.D.

SPEAKERS

"Maritime Hunter-Gatherer Adaptations: Progress and Problems" will be the title of a colloquium presented by Dr. David Sanger, University of Maine, Orono today at 3:30 p.m. in 264 Condon Hall. There will be an informal discussion following the lecture.

"Fathers and Femininity" will be the title of a presentation given by Mimi Johnson today from 3 to 4 p.m. in 605 PLC. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Women in Society.

East German theologian Hans-Martin Schenke will present a free public lecture at the University tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in 341 Gilbert. Schenke, a University of Berlin professor, will discuss Gnosticism, a religious and philosophical movement based on freeing the soul from the evil of the material world. Sponsored by the Department of Religious Studies.

MISCELLANEOUS

Women in family situations, at work and in foreign countries are among the topics of a weekly lecture series offered by the University Center for the Study of Women in Society.

The presentations will be held from 3 to 4 p.m. every Wednesday in 605 PLC. They are free and open to the public. University sociology professor Mimi Johnson will discuss fathers' influences on femininity and childhood gender socialization for today's lecture.

Three scholarships will be made available for pre-nursing students during winter and spring terms, 1983. Students identified as pre-nursing majors, or have nursing as their professional objective as of fall 1982 are eligible to apply. Applications are available in the Office of Academic Advising & Student Services, 164 Oregon Hall.

Economics Majors: Sophomores and Juniors interested in being a peer advisor for the economics department may pick up an application in 414 PLC. Looking for motivated, qualified students. Upper division economics credit is available.

Ever wondered how stories are selected for the Emerald or how the editor is picked? Emerald Editor Harry Esteve will answer these questions and more tonight at 7:30 in 221 Allen at a meeting sponsored by Women in Communications Inc. WICI will have a regular business meeting at 7 p.m. Members and the public are invited to the free presentation.
