I LOVE YOU

Fun filled, beautifully photographed in Rio de Janeiro, director Jabor explores all erotic potentials of the story of a man (Paulo Porelo) and a woman (Sonia Braga) alone after the collapse of their marriages to other people. Newsweek hails Sonia Braga as a "true sex goddess from Brazil... the most life enhancing movie star in the world."

Heartland

This 1981 film won a great amount of international acclaim, but has not been widely distributed and viewed here in the States. It is an American story about the American West involving a Wyoming rancher and a Denver widow. Vincent Canby of The New York Times calls it "An uncommonly beautiful film, an unusually accomplished work." See it this weekend for down-to-earth amazement.

STARDUST MEMORIES

Woody Allen takes a markedly incisive tone in satirizing his own role as a filmmaker, film criticism, pseudointellectuals, hero-worshippers and groupies, and, in a broad sense, life in general. All this with an amazingly sharp and deep cutting sense of humor. Roaming through the surreal landscape of his imagination, he examines his relationships with three very different and fascinating women.

A Rod Serling story

PATTERNS

Rod Serling, producer of the cosmic 1960s television series, THE TWILIGHT ZONE, wrote the script for this fascinating and visually-exciting film.
The tough boss of a New York corporation forces a showdown between a young executive and the older ineffectual who he hopes will resign.
Tense little boardroom melodrama with domestic asides, it's one of the best TV plays filmed in the fifties.
