"Twilight Zone," a choreographed dance put on by members of the Alpha Chi sorority, won a first place plaque.

Talent runs rampant at show

There was "Nose Nash and the Notones" singing their rendition of Bob Dylan's "One More Cup of Coffee," the Darkhorse Band crooning the "Stray Cat Strut" courtesy of the Stray Cats, and a multitude of piano/vocal solo acts at Thursday night's Homecoming Talent Show in the EMU Ballroom.

But a group of dancers from the Alpha Chi sorority were presented with the first place plaque for a choreographed dance titled "Twilight Zone." The talent show, sponsored by the Greek Activities Council in cooperation with the EMU Cultural Forum, featured 13 acts.

The talent show was just one of a series of events that the recently formed Greek Activities Council sponsored this week to encourage Greeks to become involved in homecoming activities.

On Wednesday, one volunteer from each sorority and fraternity donated blood to the Lane Memorial Blood Bank Blood Mobile. Greek houses will participate in a sign contest today, and will take their entries to the Oregon - Washington State football game Saturday at Autzen Stadium. On Saturday, each fraternity and sorority will host individual open houses from 4-6 p.m. for alumni and interested individuals.
