MAKING LOVE
 Called a landmark film, MAKING LOVE makes an honest attempt to correct the image of homosexuals as doomed figures. A married couple's live change dramatically when the husband becomes involved with another man. The situation and its turmoils are presented thoughtfully and honestly.

SHOOT THE MOON

Director Alan Parker (FAME, MID-NIGHT EXPRESS) and Oscar-winning writer Bo Goldman (ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST) present a disturbingly realistic vision of the "perfect marriage," and the casualties it leaves in its wake. Albert Finney and Diane Keaton give searing performances. With an impact more powerful than KRAMER VS. KRAMER, SHOOT THE MOON is as devastating and as topical as today's divorce rate.
