

Museum group looks for friends

A preview showing by a well-known Northwest artist will launch the annual membership drive for the Friends of the University Museum of Art.

The museum will close to the public from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 21, when Eugene Bennett previews a major exhibition of his recent Oregon landscapes.

Current members or anyone interested in membership and participation in the museum support group's activities is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Annual membership dues or the volunteer membership organization are $5 for students, $15 for individuals and $25 and up for families.

"The art museum plays an important role in the educational and cultural life of our community and state," says co-chairperson Barbara Walker. "It's success depends on the support of individuals, businesses and organizations who value the museum's contribution to the quality of life in our community."

For additional information about the group's activities, call the museum at 686-3027.
