POND

Cinematic history is made in this pairing of movie greats Katherine Hepburn and Henry Fonda as an elderly couple spending their last summer together. Hepburn is having enough difficulties helping Fonda cope with old age and impending death, when their daughter, Jane Fonda, arrives long enough to revive old antagonisms with her father and drop off her fiancé's son. Together the crotchety old man abrasive young boy resolve the elder's anxieties in some of the cinema's most touching and dramatic scenes.
