

Montana-led 49ers defeat Rams 30-24

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — San Francisco quarterback Joe Montana capped a 305-yard passing performance Thursday night by marshaling the 49ers on a 53-yard drive late in the fourth quarter to beat the Los Angeles Rams 30-24 in their National Football League battle.

Jeff Moore ran for the winning touchdown on a 1-yard smash after earlier scoring twice on Montana passes.

Ray Wersching added field goals of 33, 44 and 38 yards for the defending Super Bowl champions.

San Francisco, 2-3, spoiled the return to a starting role for Rams quarterback Vince Ferragamo, who nevertheless passed for 286 yards. He threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Wendell Tyler, who later added scoring runs of 1 and 15 yards before a crowd of 58,574 at Anaheim Stadium.

There were 9,975 no shows at the game which was televised nationally and locally.

The Rams, 1-4, and possibly are out of the Super Bowl playoff picture, took a 10-3 lead in the first quarter on a 36-yard field goal by Mike Lansford and the Ferragamo touchdown pass to Tyler.

The 49ers came back with 17 points in the second period, with Wersching opening the scoring with his second field goal of the night.

San Francisco backed that up with a 92-yard drive, 91 of them through the air. Montana finished the drive with a 38-yard scoring pass to Moore.

The 49ers scored on their third straight possession of the period on a 24-yard pass to Moore.

The Rams dominated the third quarter, but scored only once on a short drive of 39 yards in five plays, with Tyler running the last yard. In the drive Ferragamo completed two passes, to Preston Denard for 19 and to Tyler for 13.

Wersching hit his 38-yard field goal with 1:16 gone in the fourth period, giving the 49ers a 23-17 edge.

Los Angeles grabbed the lead 24-23 with a seven-play, 62-yard drive, 35 of them in penalties. On a fourth-and-1 play from the 17, Mike Guman dived for 2 yards and a first down, then Tyler scored on the next play.

Dana McLemore sent the 49ers on their winning drive with a 45-yard kickoff return to his 47. Montana completed four passes to reach the 5, and Moore carried three straight times before scoring.

Blazers fall short at Utah

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Adrian Dantley scored a game-high 37 points Thursday night to lead the Utah Jazz to a 119-112 National Basketball Association victory over the Portland Trail Blazers.

Utah got 20 points from Darrell Griffith and 19 from Danny Schayes as the Jazz improved its record to 5-11.

Calvin Natt led Portland scoring with 29 points. Mychal Thompson gave the Blazers 24 points, and teammate Jim Paxson scored 22.

Portland's record fell to 9-10.

Dantley scored 13 points and Schayes

12 as Utah burst to a 35-26 lead in the first quarter. The Jazz maintained its lead in the second period and was ahead 62-53 edge at halftime.

Natt scored 14 points in the third quarter, but Dantley and Ben Poquette combined for 18 that period to lead Utah to its largest margin of the game at 87-74, with 3:43 left in the quarter.

Natt and Thompson led a Portland rally early in the fourth period, and the Blazers went ahead 103-101 with six minutes left.

Utah recaptured the lead and pulled away to 117-107 on a three-point goal.
