

Jets, Raiders, Redskins sew up playoff spots

From Associated Press reports

The Washington Redskins, Los Angeles Raiders and New York Jets virtually sewed up playoff spots, and Denver quarterback Steve DeBerg tied a league passing record in National Football League action Sunday.

Mark Moseley booted field goals of 32, 30, 20 and 24 yards while lifting the Redskins to a 12-7 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Jim Plunkett lobbed a 35-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Muhammad with 25 seconds left, capping a furious fourth quarter and lifting the Raiders to a 21-16 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs. The Raiders moved 80 yards in seven plays after the Chiefs had soared 85 yards in seven plays to take a 16-14 lead on Billy Jackson's 1-yard touchdown plunge with 1:55 left.

Freeman McNeil rushed for two touchdowns and Richard Todd passed for another to lead the Jets to a 32-17 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The victory was New York's fifth straight since an opening-day loss to Miami. The Redskins and the Raiders also have 5-1 records, making them virtual shoo-ins for this year's expanded 16-team playoffs.

DeBerg equaled a league record for consecutive pass completions in rallying the Broncos from a 21-0 deficit to a 27-24 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. DeBerg completed his last 17 passes to tie the standard set by Bert Jones, then of the Baltimore Colts, in 1974. DeBerg hit on 23 of his 31 throws for 307 yards and two touchdowns.

Buffalo's defense slammed the door on Pittsburgh and Joe Cribbs rushed for 143 yards as the Bills beat the Steelers 13-0.

Pete Johnson and Ken Anderson ran for second-quarter touchdowns and Jim Breech booted three second-half field goals as the Cincinnati Bengals defeated the Cleveland Browns 23-10.

John Smith booted a 33-yard field goal with less than five minutes remaining, lifting the New England Patriots to a 3-0 win over the Miami Dolphins.

Billy Sims rushed for 109 yards and a touchdown and Detroit's defense smothered Green Bay with nine sacks and five pass interceptions as the Lions beat the Packers 30-10.

Gerald Riggs and Lynn Cain each scored two touchdowns and a swarming defense produced six turnovers and seven quarterback sacks as the Atlanta Falcons crushed the New Orleans Saints 35-0.

Minnesota's Rick Danmeier booted two second-half field goals to give the Vikings a 13-10 victory over the worn Baltimore Colts. Jim Zorn passed for one touchdown and ran for another to lead the Seattle Seahawks to a 20-14 win victory over the Chicago Bears.
