Polish ruler, on anniversary, announces end to martial law

WARSAW, Poland (AP)— The "basic rigors" of martial law will be suspended before the end of the year, internment will end, and there will be a partial amnesty, Gen. Wojciech Jaruzelski announced Sunday night.

Jaruzelski, the premier, Communist Party chief and head of the martial law council, said in a nationally televised speech that his regime hopes to end military rule "in the reasonably near future."

But he indicated that in the meantime, it would retain some of the extraordinary powers it assumed last year.

Jaruzelski spoke on the eve of the first anniversary of the day he proclaimed martial law to begin the destruction of the independent labor union Solidarity. The union was outlawed on

Oct. 13, and last month, the government concluded it was no longer a threat when underground leaders were unable to rally a nationwide protest strike.

Jaruzelski said the 21-man Council of National Redemption "is of the opinion that conditions have arisen for suspending martial law. The suspension of martial law means that its basic rigors will cease to function before the end of this year."

The Sejm, Poland's parliament meets today to take legislative action necessary to put the military council's decision into effect.

Jaruzelski spoke only in general terms of the restrictions that would be lifted and those that would remain.

"Only regulations that directly protect the fundamental interests of the state, creating a protective shield for the economy and ensuring the greater personal safety of citizens, should remain in force wholly or in part as a temporary measure," he said. "The national economy... needs special protection, and the public wants the fight against crime to be stepped up."

"Anarchy will not be tolerated," he warned. "No one in Poland or abroad should labor under any illusion that the current decisions will allow a further round."

15,000 march on U.S. base

From Associated Press

More than 15,000 anti-nuclear demonstrators, most of them women, encircled a U.S. Air Force base in England Sunday to form a "chain of peace," and thousands demonstrated at about 50 military bases in West Germany to protest deployment of new medium-range missiles in Europe.

The women linked hands in cold, rainy weather to complete a nine-mile circle around the base at Greenham Common 60 miles east of London. They then joined in a shout of "freedom" and lit candles.

At the British nuclear submarine base at Faslane on the west coast of Scotland, 14 people were arrested during a protest by some 150 demonstrators, police reported.

In West Germany, protesters blocked entrances to U.S., Canadian and West Germany bases that they claimed harbor nuclear warheads, missiles, and poison gas and bacteriological weapons.
