

PRECISION HAIRWORKS

$6 the way you
haircut want it cut!

29th & Willamette behind Patty's Pizza 343-1182
9:30-6:00 Mon.-Fri.
9:30-5:00 Saturday

no appointments taken

Success will be yours
by coming to this program!

"Updating your personal and professional image"

Fashion Show:

Presenting men's and women's fashions by Place Two.

Guest speaker:

Marilyn Thelen — Fashion consultant for McCall's Pattern Company and freelance writer for the Christian Science Monitor.

Date: February 9 7 pm
Place: Gerlinger Lounge
cost: 1.00 at the door

With 1st admission you become eligible for DOORPRIZES including:
* $40 Gift Certificate from Place Two.
* 50% OFF a resume at the Oregon Daily Emerald
* Other career related prizes!

Sponsored by:

Women in Communications Inc. &
the American Advertising Federation

Partisans squabble in senate

SALEM (AP) — Senate President Ed Fadeley's weekend comment that he didn't want to put any Republicans "infected with Reaganomics" on a House-Senate committee escalated a partisan squabble over the subject Monday.

Senate Minority Leader Tony Meeker, R-Amity, told the Senate that Fadeley's credibility had been damaged by his statement that the Joint Trade and Economic Development Committee was too important a panel on which to put someone "infected with Reaganomics." The Eugene Democrat made the comment in an interview aired Sunday on Portland's KGW-TV.

Meeker said Fadeley's comment didn't square with his initial explanation that it was an oversight that he didn't give a Republican one of five Senate slots on the 11-member panel. Fadeley has refused to change the lineup, although he has said he supports a bill that would add one Senate member to the committee.

Democrats control the Senate 21-9.

The committee is to consider the bill, SB295, Tuesday. Changing the size of the committee requires legislation because the panel by law is a permanent one that operates year round.

The Senate president and House speaker automatically are members of the committee. The House has five additional members, and the Senate has four.

Even if the bill passes the Senate, it's likely to run into problems in the House. The House, with 60 members, frequently has opposed giving the 30-member Senate equal membership on joint committees.

Suspected arsonist caught in L.A.

SALEM (AP) — A man whose house and fence were painted with racial slurs as the house burned last December was arrested in Los Angeles Monday in connection with the fire, Salem police said.

Robert White was arrested for conspiracy to commit arson and tampering with a witness, both felonies, and attempted theft, a misdemeanor, Lt. Ron Sonderman said.

When firefighters responded to the blaze Dec. 23 in south Salem, they found the letters "KKK" spray-painted in large white letters on the home. A message on a nearby fence read, "KKK Merry Xmas Niggers."

Authorities at the time believed the fire was racially motivated. Gasoline cans were found at the scene.

Sonderman said Monday police had reason to believe the person who wrote the spray-painted messages "was the person who actually struck the match."

He said the attempted theft charge was in connection with items in the house. The arrest resulted from a warrant issued Friday following an investigation by city police, Sonderman said.

...and I want a big red budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pres. Ronald Reagan, the oldest man to serve as president, celebrated his 72nd birthday with a helicopter ride in a snowstorm, a brief party and a quiet dinner with friends, aides say.

Reagan began his birthday at nearby Camp David, Md., but returned to the White House early when a winter storm threatened to isolate the Catoclin Mountain retreat Sunday morning.

After a flight that took twice the usual 20 minutes, Marine One made an instrument approach to the South Lawn on the White House and landed safely at 11:15 a.m. EST, about five hours ahead of schedule.

White House aides said members of Young Republican clubs had planned to give the president a cake at a brief party at the White House. The cake reportedly bore six candles to wish Reagan six more years in office.

You're Invited! to an Open House

When: Wednesday, February 9 & Thursday, February 10

Where: Westmoreland Family Housing
2065 W. 16th Way

Time: Noon to 4 p.m.

(Refreshments provided)

Because there are immediate openings in Amazon and Westmoreland, we want to share with you the exciting possibilities of living with other student families. Our residents have found the environment to be supportive and comfortable for married couples, single parents and children.

Come and look us over!

