

Travel

emerald entertainment supplement

february 16, 1983

Spring break is meant for breaking away, so grab yourself a friend and start moving out. Try some place novel. We have a few ideas.

Page 3B

Mr. Horace Greely advised 19th-century youth to go west. It's traditional for 20th-century youth to go south for spring break. The Emerald has an alternative: Go north. B.C. awaits.

Page 4B

Oregon offers the skier a variety of experiences from the perpetual snow fields at Palmer, the virgin powder of Mount Bailey, to cross-country skiing at Crater Lake.

Plus—

Reno, road trips in the Northwest, Mexican vacations, bargain air fares, life in Alaska, and ETCETERA, a new addition to the Entertainment Supplement.