

Khadafy vows to turn Sidra into 'red gulf of blood'

From Associated Press Reports

Libyan leader Col. Moammar Khadafy vowed Thursday to turn the Gulf of Sidra into a "red gulf of blood" if the U.S. aircraft carrier Nimitz and its battle group dare to re-enter the disputed bay in the southern Mediterranean.

Pres. Ronald Reagan has said there are no plans to involve U.S. forces in the region if Libya clashes with Sudan, its U.S.-backed neighbor, but that American troops have a right to defend themselves if fired upon.

Two U.S. jet fighters conducting war games from the Nimitz shot down a pair of Libyan planes after being fired on over the gulf in August 1981, and the Nimitz and its battle group just completed another set of maneuvers there.

"Entering Sidra means an invasion of Libya. The Libyan people want to live as free people and won't accept foreign occupation. The Gulf of Sidra will turn into a red gulf of blood if anyone tries to sail through it by force," Khadafy told his Parliament in the Libyan capital of Tripoli.

In an address carried by Libya's official JANA news agency, he warned that the U.S. Navy, operating north of the Gulf of Sidra, "forms a challenge to the Libyan nation. The Libyan people won't stand and watch idly if pushed too far."

"We will not permit America or any foreign state to enter the Gulf of Sidra or any other part of Libyan waters, and this includes the Soviet Union, to which we are linked by a relationship of friendship," Khadafy said.

"The Libyan people are ready to fight to defend their land, their water and skies," he said. Some of the waters claimed by Libya are 100 miles from shore. The United States recognizes a three-mile limit.

Pentagon sources in Washington said the United States has sent AWACS planes to Egypt and moved the Nimitz and its battle group 100 miles off Egypt's northwest coast to counter a Libyan aircraft buildup apparently aimed at Sudan.

Reagan said the radar surveillance planes were in the area on a training exercise. The Egyptian Foreign Ministry said current military activities in Egypt were "normal."

Sale of the Airborne Warning and Control System planes to Saudi Arabia several years ago caused a storm of protest in Israel, but Israeli officials had no immediate comment on the latest deployment.

The Pentagon sources, who declined to be identified, said Khadafy had moved air units to bases in Chad, the adjacent country to the south where Libya has been supporting one faction in a civil war.

Those units appear to threaten Sudan, Chad's eastern neighbor, the Pentagon sources said, and Egypt deployed air force units to bases in southern Egypt to be ready to counter any Libyan move against Sudan.

Pearls of wit from mouths of children

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — What does Pres. Ronald Reagan do in Washington?

Teacher Jo Ann Salem recently put the question to her first-grade students at R.E. Simpson school and got some surprising answers.

"He's the president and knows what he's doing even if we don't," replied Stephen.

Others:

Benjamin: "He earns his money by helping Mrs. Reagan around the White House."

Jennifer: "When there is a real bad problem, he calls the police or gets into his airplane."

Buddy: "He helps to run World War II and World War III." Billy: "He paints his White House when it gets yukky."

Chris: "He can give you money but not very much."

Louis: "He helps the tax guys clean up the White House to keep it white."

Alex: "He works and does paper work — not the wallpaper kind."

Cindi: "He helps people by giving them his clothes and stuff."
